MISS DEATH BY MIRACLE

Passengers and Crew on Canadian Pacific Train in Narrow Escape.

ENGINE LEAPS INTO LAKE SUPERIOR

Fireman Carried Down in Plunge Off Ledge High Above Water.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 21.—Fireman H. O'Connor, of Schreiber, Ont., was drowned and other crew members and passengers narrowly escaped death this morning when the first section of the Canadian Pacific railroad's Imperial limited, westbound from Montreal to Vancouver, was wrecked near Caldwell, 175 miles east of Fort William, Ont.

The wreck was caused by the engine jumping the track at a point where the road skirts Lake Superior on a ledge thirty to fifty feet above the water. The engine plunged into the lake, carrying Fireman O'Connor to his death.

The engineer escaped by jumping from the window of his cab. Baggage cars, club and dining cars and the heavily loaded Pullmans remained on the top of the grade.

Storm Sweeps Lake.

A severe storm whipped across the north shore of Lake Superior all night, carrying down poles and telegraph wires for many miles east of White River, Ont. For this reason Canadian Pacific officials experienced difficulty in communicating from Fort William with the trainmen at the point where the wreck occurred.

The officials received sufficient information, however, to warrant announcement at 9:30 o'clock that none of the passengers had been killed or injured. At first it was thought the wreck had occurred near Rossport, where a sinkhole had given considerable trouble.

SEE A "MARRIAE CRISIS."

German Statisticians Lament Increase in Divorce Cases.

Berlin, Nov. 21.—Statisticians have confirmed with their adding machines that a great increase in the number of divorces and a large decrease in the number of marriages in Germany have occurred during recent years and claim to have discovered a "marriage crisis." The year 1911 shows 15,780 divorces, or about 24 per 100,000 inhabitants, as against 12,180, or 20 per 100,000, in 1906. The number of marriages per 100,000 inhabitants in 1906 was 8,200 as compared with 7,800 in 1911.

The divorce statistics relating to eBrlin show an average of 96 per 100,000 in 1911, against 62 per 100,000 for the period of 1901 to 1904.

HORRORS! WORK FOR COMMITTEE

Dillingham Shatters Somnolence of Ornamental Organization.

HASN'T MET IN YEARS

Washington, Nov. 21.—Consternation seized upon members and employes of the senate committee on the university of the United States today when it was learned that the chairman, Senator Dillingham, had announced his intention of introducing and pressing a bill for the establishment of a university of federal control.

The committee has not had a meeting in years and has existed principally to afford new members a chairmanship, a committee room and the allowances for secretary and clerks that go with committee appointments. Hence the stir.

"I believe thoroughly in the establishment of such a university in Washington," said Senator Dillingham. "It should, of course, be an institution for graduate and advanced work. The great government departments lend themselves to this very description of work."

This announcement shattered the somnolency of the committee room and astonished porters began clearing away ancient cobwebs.

THOUSAND DOLLAR ROOSTER IS DEAD

King Ringie V Was One of Country's Greatest Show Birds.

HOLTERMAN HAS LOSS

King Ringie, V, a Plymouth Rock rooster owned by W. D. Holterman, east of the city, and valued at $1,000, died at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. The valuable bird had been ill but a few days and all known methods to save his life were used, but he gradually grew worse.

King Ringie was one of the greatest Plymouth Rock show birds in this country and had been awarded first prize in exhibitions in all parts of the land. He was the leader in his class at the Chicago show and this year King Ringie was awarded the first prize in the Fort Wayne poultry show.

Many Fort Wayne poultry fanciers saw the bird at that time and were greatly interested in him. Mr. Holterman states that the death of King Ringie is a heavy loss to his pens

TOUGHEST BOY IN CITY IS SOUGHT

He Will Be Offered Membership in the "Last Chance" Club.

ONE AT MISHAWAKA

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Juvenile and truant officers here were today asked by J. Robinson, president of the National Fellowship club, of Chicago, for assistance in finding the "toughest" boy in the city. After he is located he will be offered membership in the Last Chance boys' club, and with eleven others taken to a ranch near Reno, Nev., where he will be given an opportunity to become a good man.

Recently Upton Sinclair, Jack London and Jack Robbins formed an organization having for its object the saving of a dozen of the worst boys in the country and Mr. Robbins was chosen to select them.

Already bad boys have been located at Racine, Wis.; Mishawaka, Ind.; East St. Louis, Ill.; Lima, Ohio, and St. Louis, Mo. No boys over 12 years old are considered.

CALLS NEW YORK ACTION INSULT

Matrons Make Best Possible Teachers, Declares Prof. Barnes.

HIS IRE IS AROUSED

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 21.—Matrons make the best possible teachers for the young, according to Prof. Earl Barnes, who lectured before the Missouri university extension center here today.

"The present day educational system puts a premium on the greatest sin in the world, celibacy," said Prof. Barnes. "Particularly is it wrong to insist that only young, unmarried women be allowed to teach in public schools. . . .

"What better teachers could be found for children than the cultured married woman coming from a congenial home into the school room?

"No greater insult ever was given to American womanhood than the act of the New York city board of education in asking the resignation of a married teacher who had requested leave of absence that she might become a mother."

DEITZ VICTIM IS DEAD.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Caroline Miller, who was shot by her son-in-law, Charles Deitz, when he ran into her house at Braddock, Pa., yesterday, and also shot his wife, died in the hospital this morning. Deitz, who fired a bullet into his own head soon afterward, died late yesterday. Domestic trouble was the cause of the tragedy. Deitz having recently been released from the county jail where he was confined for failure to provide for his family.

OLD FUNCTION TO BE OMITTED

White House Will Not Hold Historic New Years Reception.

PRESIDENT PLANS TO TAKE VACATION

Arrangement Overturns Old Custom—News at the Capital.

Washington, Nov. 21.—There will be no New Year's reception at the white house. President Wilson announced today that during the holiday recess of congress he will take a ten days' vacation. Exactly when or where he will go was not announced and probably will not be until his departure.

The white house New Year's reception is a historical institution in Washington. It has been the custom for the president to receive congressmen, army, navy, the diplomatic corps and all official Washington, according to rank and then shake hands with citizens. More than 5,000 have shaken hands with the president on such occasions. The reception is always followed by rounds of official calls.

White House Statement.

The white house issued this statement:

"The usual New Year's reception will not be held on January 1, 1914. The departure from custom on this occasion is due to the fact that the president will not be in Washington at that time. Owing to the long session of congress the president has had no vacation since his inauguration. As the approaching session of congress will be the long session the only opportunity for the president to secure a rest will be during the usual holiday recess of congress."

No predictions were made by white house officials as to what the president would do for succeeding New Year's days of his administration, but it is known that Mr. Wilson is opposed to the physical ordeal of shaking hands with thousands of people.

Debate Begins Monday.

Active debate on the currency bill will begin Monday in the senate when Chairman Owen, of the banking committee, will make the opening speech in support of the administration bill. The senate will meet Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for currency discussion; adjourn over Thanksgiving day and Friday will probably adjourn to Monday morning at 11 o'clock. At noon the special session will close and the regular session will begin. Congress probably will take the usual holiday recess of two weeks from December 20 to January 5, in view of the president's announcement that he would rest during the holidays.

No Fight Over Mileage.

When the senate assembles for its last meeting of the special session, it will meet at 11 o'clock on the morning of December 1st and continue until noon, the hour the regular session begins. In that way there can be no recess—not even constructively—and no fight over

BIG ISSUES ALL OUT OF THE WAY

Predicted Fight Fails to Develop in Labor Federation.

ELECTION TOMORROW

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—All of the big questions were out of the way when the American Federation of Labor met today, excepting the dispute between the regular and seceding factions of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. The resolutions committee was expected to bring in a report commanding the seceders to seek cards from the regular body. It was considered certain that the matter would cause a heated discussion. The resolutions committee also has before it the resolution urging federal investigation of the charges that Michigan copper companies acquired title to part of their land by fraud.

The election of officers and selection of a convention city probably will take place Saturday morning. The predicted fight between the administration and radicals has not materalized.

DISPUTE IS UP TO COMMISSION

State Utilities Body Will Adjust Carmen's Strike Grievances.

UNION CAUSED HITCH

Indianapolis, Nov. 21.—The dispute between the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company which operates the local street railway system and its employes was placed before the public utilities commission of Indiana today for settlement, both sides having announced they had been unable to reach an agreement.

This is in compliance with the agreement negotiated by Gov. Ralston under which the employes returned to work following a strike which tied up street car service for a week. While no announcement was made of what phases of the grievances caused the deadlock, it is understood the street car men demanded the union be recognized before the negotiations proceeded and that the company refused to do this.

The commission's ruling will be binding on both the company and its employes for a term of three years.

PREFERS KANSAS TO PRISON.

Franklin, Pa., Nov. 21.—Given his choice between a thirty-year sentence to the penitentiary or banishment to the "dry" state of Kansas, by Judge G. S. Criswell in criminal court yesterday, William Hogan, of Franklin, chose the latter. Hogan, who had pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny, was liable to an automatic sentence of thirty years because he had twice before been convicted on the same charge. Friends will make up a purse so that Hogan can go to Kansas.

CLEVELAND WILL CLAMP DOWN LID

OHIO LAW IS UPHELD

Cleveland, Nov. 21.—That the most zealous observance of the liquor laws is to prevail in Cleveland was evidenced today when the police were ordered to do the following things:

In addition to closing all saloons, close cigar stands connected with saloons from midnight Saturday until the Monday opening hour.

See that saloonists do not enter their saloons on Sunday even for purposes of bookkeeping.

Prevent porters and scrub women from working in saloons on Sunday.

Make saloonists keep their blinds up from midnight Saturday until the Monday opening hour.

Big downtown cafes which have been deprived of Sunday restaurant privileges for some time will not be able to resume their trade.

NEW OHIO LAW UPHELD.

Court Refuses Injunction Against Lucas County License Board.

Toledo, O., Nov. 21.—Refusing an injunction against the Lucas county liquor license board in common pleas court this morning, Judge John P. Mann upheld the constitutionality of the new Ohio liquor law in a test case in which forty attorneys, representing liquor dealers in all parts of the state, were interested. The case will be appealed.

MY! BUT IT'S HOT, SAYS FORT WAYNE

Everybody is Talking of Present Unseasonable Weather.

FURNACES RUN LOW

Fort Wayne awakened this morning and found itself basking in real summerlike weather with the sun shining warmly and bright, and now everybody is talking about the unseasonable weather, and the fact is they have a right to talk, for the temperatures here during the last three days have been exceedingly unusual for this time of the year.

Overcoats were forsaken temporarily and furnace fires allowed to smoulder and die out and the springlike breezes almost tempted one to glance at the trees to see if any buds on the branches had been fooled into the belief that it was time to wake up and make on appearance.

According to Weather Observer W. S. Palmer the temperature did not go below fifty degrees any place in the entire middle west last night. The lowest registered here was 56 degrees and at 10 o'clock the mercury stood at 64 and was steadily climbing. The weather map at the Commercial club showed only two marks designating snow. One was at Qu'Appelle, Can., and the other at Spokane.

A slight drop in temperature is predicted by Mr. Palmer for Saturday and Sunday.

CONVOCATION CLOSES.

Eighty-Four Candidates Take Work of Scottish Rite Masonry.

A class of eighty-four candidates received the work of the thirty-second degree of Scottish Rite Masonry Thursday evening, at the closing session of the annual fall convocation of the valley of Fort Wayne. When the last Mason had registered early in the evening, the registration book contained a total of 885 names, and it is estimated that fully 450 of this number were from out of the city.

Consul Canada Refuses to Surrender Maderos to Mexican Federals.

FLEE TO AMERICAN WARSHIP AS REFUGE

Veiled Threat of Use of Force Keeps Bluejackets Ready for Action.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 21.—Evaristo and Daniel Madero, two relatives of the late president of Mexico, were taken today on the board the American flagship from the consulate where they took refuge last night.

A request for the surrender of Evaristo and Daniel Madero to the local authorities was made upon Consul William W. Canada today by Col. Eugenio Gutierrez, aide of Gen. Gustavo Maas, federal commander of Vera Cruz. Mr. Canadan refused to comply with the request.

The two Maderos took shelter in the American consulate following their release from prison yesterday on bail.

Consul Canada asked Washington for instructions and was ordered to afford them asylum.

Armed Crew Ready.

After the consul's refusal today to deliver them up, it was reported that veiled threats had been made to take the prisoners by force.

In anticipation of any such attempt a steam launch from the American battleship Rhode Island lay all morning off the sea wall opposite the consulate with an armed crew of blue jackets on board ready to come ashore at a moment's notice. The refugees were held in the consulate without being permitted to communicate with anybody. Not even their wives were allowed to visit them.

John Lind conferred today with Rear Admiral Fletcher, the commander of the American fleet. He exchanged numerous dispatches with Washington.

HALF FARE IF YOU CLING TO A STRAP

HE'S A STRAP-HANGER

Washington, Nov. 21.—"Strap hangers" in street cars in the District of Columbia are today cheering Senator Norris, who introduced a bill in the senate providing that any one entering a car and not being able to find a seat, should be given a rebate check. Two of the checks, in the terms of the bill, would be legal tender for one fare.

"I've hung on straps myself and I know what it is," said Senator Norris in declaring his intention of forcing his proposed measure. "It is a well known fact that the street car corporation makes three times as much on the man who stands in the aisle as the woman who occupies a seat. That being so, it is only fair that the person who stands, be it man or woman, should be carried for at least one-half the price of the person accommodated with a seat. The proposed law imposes no penalty, it is pure justice."

The senator believes that if the law is enacted the street car companies would be more careful to see that seats were provided for all patrons. This, he acknowledged, is his object.

WIFE'S "INNOCENT FLIRTATION" LEADS TO MURDER BY HUSBAND.

The Meter-Man

C. G. EGGIMANN, living at the corner where the Goshen road intersects St. Mary's avenue, is firm in the belief that we all have our troubles sooner or later, and of one kind or another. But this story doesn't deal with Mr. Eggimann's troubles—maybe he hasn't had his yet.

It appears that a meter man from the traction company visited the Eggimann home one day this week to install a meter, and while standing on a box to enable him to reach the desired height he lost his balance and fell, meter and all, into a freshly-dug excavation for a drain pipe, which contained a respectable amount of newly-precipitated rainfall. When the meter man recovered himself and the meter from the mud hole, he scraped off the heaviest of the mud and then tried the stunt once more. He discovered, after getting the meter placed that the glass front was broken. This necessitated taking the thing down again and tying it together with a strip of rag.

"Now, then," said he, smiling through the tear-diluted mud, "I guess that's finished."

It was a bad guess. He had been gone only a few minutes when he remembered that he forgot to lock the meter. He returned for that purpose and then bade the family a fond farewell.

"I feel," said he, "like a member of the household, as I have spent a very pleasant day here, one that I will long remember."

He lost his balance.

MEXICAN POLICY IS SIMPLE ONE

Administration Course is Perfectly Easy to Understand.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

(By Gilson Gardner.)

Washington, Nov. 21.—The administration's Mexican policy is perfectly simple and perfectly easy to understand. The United States is working in cooperation with practically all the other nations in placing Huerta in a position of economic and diplomatic isolation. This means that Huerta will be unable to secure money to carry on his government or maintain his army. Without money he must cease to exist. As Huerta wanes, the Carranza group will wax. There is to be no intervention. Carranza will do all the intervening necessary. Carranza may be just as much of a Ruffian as Huerta, but officially he is a "constitutional" ruffian. He is nominally, at least, against a dictatorship and in favor of elections and the constitution, so we are for him.

The victory won by the single taxers in Pueblo, Col., was not won without a hard fight. Among the unfair tactics practiced by the opposition, the city clerk declared 1,200 names on the initiative petition to be illegal at the last minute, in the hope thus to invalidate it, but a writ of mandamus forced him to put the issue on the ballot. The amendment carried by 2,711 to 2,171, a majority of 540. The weather was bad and the vote light. The labor vote of the Bessemer Steel works turned the trick. Pueblo will now be watched by all the country to see what is gained by the poor man by reform in the fundamental principles of taxation.

A noisy clamor demanding that teeth be put into the Sherman law is being raised by prominent democrats. "Make guilt personal; put trust magnates into jail!" These are the slogans. As a matter of fact, the Sherman law as it now stands is as full of teeth as a shark's jaws. The trouble is that when law makes a crime of certain acts and practices which go with huge consolidation and organization of business operations, there are no juries or courts to be found which will enforce the penalties. This was found in the beef trust cases, in the turpentine cases, in the bathtub cases, in the glass trust cases, in the cash register cases, in the tobacco cases, in the Standard Oil cases, and in scores o fother smaller cases which have been brought and some carried to their ultimate appeals. That is not the answer to the trust problem.

Gilbert N. Hitchcock is the sole surviving insurgent in the Wilson democracy. The election cast a pall upon insurgency. O'Gorman and Reed have backed water. Their enterprising scheme to haze the schoolmaster has been abandoned. Prof. Wilson still wields the birch and while it is true there has been some delay in carrying out the administration's program, the naughty boys are all very smug and smilingly assure the teacher that they intend to study hard and have perfect deportment and get the lesson done now in a very short time.

Evidence continues to accumulate showing that the democratic administration will probably line up aggressively in the fight to secure the initiative, referendum, recall and the gateway amendment. Secretary of State Bryan has just arranged to address the opening session of the National Popular Government league, which meets in the D. A. R. hall here on December 8. Senator Owen, one of the administration spokesmen in the senate, is chairman of the committee of fifty which is organizing the league. Former Governor Folk, now in the state department, will probably also be one of the speakers and the league has strong support on the democratic side of both house and senate, though composed of progressive men of all parties. Its information bureau, just organized, is sending out information and literature on popular government subjects to all who apply. Already hundreds of pounds of documents have been sent free to debating clubs, schools, political organizations, women's clubs, study clubs, and so on, all over the country. A postal card request, addressed to its executive secretary, Judson King, at the Munsey building, will open to any one a mine of valuable information on popular government subjects.

December 4 hearings in favor of woman's suffrage will begin before Chairman Henry's famous committee on rules. This does not mean that Chairman Henry will be permitted to sidestep this important question by the familiar expedient of indefinite talk. It means that the public will be kept informed from this time on that the national administration is confronted with the problem whether to be for or against woman suffrage, and the action of Henry and the rules committee, and Underwood's famous and well-oiled machine will be regarded as the action of the Wilson democracy and the latter will be held accountable for action or non-action and the results will eventually tell for or against the administration in the ten states where women vote for presidential electors.

the much mooted question of mileage. This was agreed upon today by the leaders as the solution of a problem that threatened to become a tangle.

After Cold Storage Men.

Attorney General McReynolds is considering an investigation of an alleged cold storage combination which he believes may be responsible for the high price of eggs and poultry.

Charges have also reached the department that cold storage concerns, in some instances sell cold storage products for fresh ones. Such transactions violate the pure food law.

EMPHATIC NO IN HIS REPLY

the Mexican congress and Huerta's reading of his message are regarded by officials here as merely carrying the situation one step further along and not as events which forecast any immediate step by the United States. The view here is that each day adds to what administration officials regard as the steady and gradual disintegration of the Huerta regime. The official view is that should the congress act on English oil concessions pending, such acts will be regarded as invalid not only by the United States but by Great Britain. A perfect understanding is understood to have been reached between London and Washington. Inasmuch as foreign governments generally have signified their assent to the American policy as thus far outlined, it is being taken for granted here that so far as the nations of the world are concerned, the new Mexican congress may legislate as it will, but its acts will not have international sanction as the constituted lawmaking body of the republic. Such a favorable attitude by other nations generally strengthens the confidence of the Washington government that the power of the Huerta regime is crumbling. The fact that many members of the Catholic party did not attend the session of congress by previous agreement is regarded as another evidence of the loss by Huerta of one of the chief sources of his previous support.

While no positive steps are being taken and no action of a summary character, so far as known, is planned, the disposition of high officials is to await the slow, but what they deem inevitable process of forcing Huerta to retire.

There was no cabinet meeting today, but the president saw Secretaries Garrison and Bryan and Acting Secretary Roosevelt of the navy. Dispatches received from Rear Admiral Fletcher were discussed but the contents were not divulged.

WERE NOT EFFECTIVE.

Fact That O'Shaughnessy Held Two Conferences Becomes Known.

Mexico City, Nov. 21.—The fact that Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires, has had two conferences with the Mexican minister of foreign affairs during the past few days, became known here today. The exact character of these meetings and the nature of the conversation are not known but it is evident that they did not change the situation.

Assurances were given at the embassy today that no instructions had been received from Washington for Charge O'Shaughnessy to leave his post. It is known that his personal affairs are in such condition that he could leave in an hour's notice if the necessity arose.

A demand was made by the federal military authorities on all the foreign business concerns in Monterey for cash to provide for the maintenance of the army in that district. From the Monterey Steel Co. 20,000 pesos was asked and from the Waters-Pierce Oil company 15,000 pesos. Others were taxed in proportion to their importance. The managers of the Waters-Pierce Oil company instructed their representative in Monterey to refuse payment of the levy and to place themselves and the property of the company under the protection of the American consul.

Hard fighting was still in progress today about Ciudad Victoria, the capital of the state of Tamaulipas, according to information issued by the war office. Although the city was said to have been captured by the rebels on Tuesday last, it is now claimed that Gen. Antonio Rabago, the federal commander, is still holding the place although continuous fighting has gone on inside the city for the last 24 hours. Federal reinforcements under Gen. Rubio Navarrel are due to relieve the garrison at any moment.

FORM NEW FEDERATION.

Equity Exchanges of Allen County Have Organized.

Six independent equity exchanges of Allen county held a joint meeting Thursday afternoon at the office of County Assessor Eggeman, and formed the Allen County Equity exchanges, electing F. E. Moore, of Wallen, president, and J. S. Duffy, of Pleasant township, secretary.

The exchanges have been organized for the purpose of enabling the farmers of each community to go together in the sale of their products and in the purchase of farm machinery and provisions in wholesale lots. The newly formed county exchange will permit the various neighborhood bodies to profit by the experiences of others and benefit through co-operation.

Regular meetings are to be held the last Saturday of each month at the assembly room of the court house, the first session to be held November 29 at which time directors will be named for the coming year. The bodies represented at the meeting were the Wallen Equity exchange, the Arcola Equity exchange, the Wayne Local union, the St. Joseph Township union, the Sheldon Local union and the Aboite Equity exchange.

NO ONE THERE TO MEET THE BOARD

Crescent Avenue Objectors Did Not Appear as Had Been Agreed.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

None of the resident property owners on Crescent avenue were out to meet the board of works at 9 o'clock this morning for further test of the concrete base of the pavement now under construction on that street. After yesterday's inspection it was agreed that the objectors and the board should meet at 9 o'clock this morning, examine some new cuts in the pavement and to determine what should be done. The board was on the street until 10:30 but did not see any of the committee of those property owners who have made protest that the pavement is faulty.

Measurement of "hole No. 1" and "hole No. 2," in the 2200 block, which were said to disclose short defficiency of concrete base, had been enlarged to about two feet square to permit accurate scaling. In the first hole the concrete was found a trifle over the required 6 inches and the top had an excess of half an inch over the two demanded by the specifications. The second hole gave measurements of 6¼ inches of concrete and 2½ inches of top, an excess in both cases. The concrete at a point just south of the Tennessee avenue line shows shallow concrete. Martin Grace, of the Grace Construction company, says this deficiency was caused by a changing of the grade by the engineer at that point. The board has ordered the contractor to make up the deficiency by additional top, and there will be two inches added in this wise to the crown of the street at the intersection and just south of it. The board says that this will be a gain for the street and the property owners. The change of grade was dictated by drainage conditions at the intersection. Except at this point the board is resolved to stand by the street, asserting that it is a good, honest piece of work and according to specifications.

The cost of the additional top at Tennessee avenue will be borne by the contractor. The board and city engineer went out to the work this afternoon to plan the correction at Tennessee avenue.

Threaten an Injunction.

At a meeting of some of the objecting property owners last night the following resolutions were adopted:

"We the undersigned property owners residing on Crescent avenue, petition your honorable body (the board of public works) to cause the suspension of work in the paving of Crescent avenue until such a time as assurances can be given to the affected property owners that the pavement will be constructed strictly in accordance with the plans and specifications outlined in the contract between the city of Fort Wayne and the Grace Construction company.

"We are convinced by an examination made in the presence of the contractor and the members of the board of works that the concrete base has not been laid in accordance with the specifications and we demand that our interests as taxpayers of Fort Wayne be protected by the board of public works which entered into the contract with the Grace Construction company.

"This is to notify the board of public works that unless that body causes the suspension of work until it is assured that the faults of the concrete base are remedied, the property owners residing on Crescent avenue will go into court with an injunction suit.

"T. J. WHITACRE,
"C. F. MARTIN,
"JOHN DEPPEN,
"The Committee."

Notice Served on Board.

Late this afternoon the board of works received a communication signed by Herman J. Meyers, chairman, and Charles F. Martin, Thomas J. Whitaker and John H. Deppen, of the committee of protesting property owners, stating that the committee was convinced after its inspection in company with the board yesterday that the concrete base had not been laid according to specifications and demanding that the board cause a suspension of work on the street until the alleged faults can be remedied. The communication warns the board that failure to do this will be followed at once by an injunction suit.

NOTIFYING ICE DEALERS.

Must Sell by Weight and Five-Pound Coupon is the Unit.

Acting upon instructions from state food and drug commissioner, under whose authority the state bureau of weights and measures is administered, City Sealer C. B. Tolan is notifying all the ice manufacturers and dealers in Fort Wayne that ice must be sold by weight and calling attention to the severity of the penalties that attach to violations. Ice dealers are advised that they may use the coupon book in payment for ice only when the unit check is five pounds or less. It is emphasized that the practice heretofore largely obtaining of selling coupon books containing twenty-five or fifty pound checks is fair neither to consumer nor iceman and makes it impossible for either party to get or give full value. Delivery men and drivers should be instructed to take checks in units of not more than five pounds to the nearest weight shown by scale at the time of delivery. It is explained that if forty-seven pounds of ice is delivered checks to the amount of forty-five pounds should be taken; if forty-eight pounds is delivered checks to the amount of fifty pounds should be taken, and so on.

City Sealer Tolan says the regulations will be enforced here and he wants all the icemen to be familiar with the rule. Ice must be weighed immediately before being placed in the consumer's box and charged for according to the regulation set out in the foregoing, save where ice is sold wholesale or in large quantities, as to saloons, meat markets or the like. In deliveries of 200 pounds or more coupons for large amounts will be allowed.

SETTING ITS CURB BACK.

Pennsylvania Company Providing for Widening of Baker Street.

That Baker street must eventually be made wider is the belief of the Pennsylvania railroad people, who have set a new curb six feet back of the old curb along its frontage in that thoroughfare. The company is now constructing its sidewalks and is taking no chance on having in a short time to cut away six feet of them. The old curb is not disturbed, but the new one is placed where it is expected to be set when the street is increased to a breadth of forty feet.

There is some probability that the resolution declaring the widening of the street six feet on each side a matter of "the public welfare" will be reintroduced in the council next Tuesday night. It was defeated at the last meeting for want of a two-thirds vote, although eight councilmen supported it at the expense of repudiating a unanimous report of the committee on streets and alleys.

BEGIN WORK NEXT MONDAY.

Sidewalks in Calhoun Street Subway to Be Elevated.

The Moellering Construction company will begin next Monday to elevate the sidewalks in the Calhoun street subway to a height of twenty-four inches above the present level. During the progress of this work the traction company was instructed to run its cars with extra precaution through the subway, as vehicles will use the trackway on the west side until the walk on that side is completed, the driveway being closed. Pedestrians will have to use the east walk exclusively. Conditions will be vice versa as soon as work on the west side is completed.

WANTS A PLAYDAY ON BANKS.

Councilman Bauer Will Introduce Resolution Tonight.

At tonight's special meeting of the city council Member J. J. Bauer will introduce a resolution calling upon the mayor to fix a day or days within the next two weeks for a general public turnout to the river banks in Fort Wayne for volunteer service in cleaning up and removing debris and other obstructions from the streams. This is to be in addition to the work designed by an appropriation of $700 for that purpose which the council is expected to pass tonight pursuant to the action of the public meeting held in the city hall last Monday.

NO AUTHORITY TO INTERFERE.

City Attorney H. G. Hogan has given the board of works a written opinion that it has no legal authority to interfere with the rebuilding of the recently collapsed Wabash railroad coal docks, between Fairfield avenue and Taylor street. Resident property owners in the vicinity retitioned the board to compel the railroad to choose another site.

DAYTON AVENUE COMPROMISE.

Thoroughfare Will Be Made a Width of Forty Feet.

The board of works has reached a satisfactory compromise on the matter of widening Dayton avenue. It is to be made forty feet instead of fifty and the resolution for the greater width has been rescinded and plans ordered for the lesser. The board will vacate ten feet of the south side of Dayton avenue between South Wayne and Indiana avenues, a portion of the street already fifty feet wide, in order that there may be uniform width. The board was unable to make an assessment roll for a fifty-foot street that was satisfactory to property owners.

A franchise contract is being prepared by the city attorney for permission of the Summit City Soap works to lay a ten-inch water pipe through city property and along streets and alleys from the Maumee river to the petitioner's factory. The matter was taken up yesterday and it was decided by the board that it would have to go the course of a franchise according to the public utilities law.

TO INSPECT LAKESIDE DIKE.

Board of Works and Committee to See What is Needed.

The board of works and a committee of the Lakeside Improvement association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock for a trip of inspection to determine conditions along the river banks and dikes in Lakeside. President Lew B. Sharp, of the Lakeside association, made arrangements for the trip. It is hoped to determine what can be done for the greater security of Lakeside in the event of floods.

QUITS RETAIL FIELD.

Stillman Store Here Goes Out of Business.

The stock of the Stillman department store on South Calhoun street will be transferred to the Grand Leader, corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets, of which J. J. Hirsh is president, and John Stillman, who established the Stillman store, will devote his entire time to his chain of retail stores in other cities, and to the wholesale merchandise department, with headquarters in this city. Outside interests are negotiating for the lease of the Stillman store building at 1108-10-12 Calhoun street, but at this time nothing definite has been done. For the present Mr. Stillman will use the two upper floors of the building for his wholesale house.

The stock of the Stillman store is to be immediately transferred to the Grand Leader and closed out at a sale to begin Saturday and for which 120 extra salespeople have been engaged.

CITY BREVITIES.

With Rev. J. H. McKenzie as a guest of honor, eight students of the Howe Military academy and about twenty former graduates from the institution enjoyed a banquet at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the Anthony hotel.

Fort Wayne members of the Maccabee lodge have completed arrangements for a motion picture exhibition to be held Dec. 9 at the Knights of Pythias hall, showing the history of the order and all of the ritual work connected with it. The committee in charge has for its members C. W. Habecker, Louis Dahlkamp, Louis Figel and Samuel Smith.

Hon. Perry A. Randall, of this city, will go to Washington, D. C., a week from next Monday to attend a meeting of the national rivers and harbors congress. When he returns, Mr. Randall expects to have some additional information relative to the detailed survey for the proposed deep waterway from Toledo to Lake Michigan by way of Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Lina Faas, of Lima, O., is in the city to visit her sister, Mrs. Imbody, a patient at St. Joseph's hospital.

John L. James, of Woodburn, and P. E. Trent, of this city, have enlisted for service in the United States navy.

CITY WITHOUT TAX LEVY.

Budget of $700,000 at Binghamton, N. Y., May Go by Default.

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Binghamton faces the peculiar situation of being without a legal tax levy and the budget of $700,000 may go by default. The situation, the like of which has never been known in this state, is due to a deadlock in the common council over a reduction of the tax rate and the failure of the council to adopt the budget before Nov. 21, as required by the charter. It is alleged that if the budget is passed now any taxpayer could refuse to pay his tax on the ground that the levy is illegal.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Hair coming out? If dry, thin, faded, bring back its color and lustre.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

EXITS IN PLACE OF FIRE DRILLS

Inaugurator of Systems Attacks the Evil at Its Root.

HAS SOME NEW PLANS

New York, Nov. 21.—"As a means of increasing the efficiency of life-saving methods resorted to in business buildings in order to avoid the dangers of sudden conflagrations and panics, the exit test is supplanting the fire drill, which is made compulsory by law in the states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

"The primary object of the exit test is to determine if the building is properly designed, so that in the emergency of a fire the occupants may be able to effect their escape rapidly without the probability of injury from stairway or other congestion, which inevitably causes panic."

Such is the statement of H. F. J. Porter, who is known as the "father of the fire drill." After inaugurating the fire drill in many buildings, which had to be altered in order to do so, Mr. Porter determined that instead of installing such drills in badly designed buildings it would be better to design the buildings properly and thus eliminate this necessity.

"As a solution of the fire hazard problem in loft buildings the drill is futile," says Mr. Porter. "It may be valuable in giving occupants confidence, but if the fire drill fails to accomplish its purpose of furnishing a quick and safe egress this method is lacking in something.

"Since the Asche building fire in this city I have been repeatedly requested to put fire drills in loft buildings. Such a drill can not be introduced effectively in a single loft building, as ordinarily tenanted.

"When we analyze the situation there seem to be three ways of solving the problem of escaping from a crowded building:

"1. Increase the number of stairways in a building so as to have two independent stairways leading down from each floor, with independent exists at their base. In a ten or twenty-story or taller building this would be impossible, as great sections of the building would have to be occupied by stairways, where occurs the congestion which causes accidents.

"2. Reduce the number of occupants in each story to the capacity of the stairways. By actual test, the capacity of a stairway wide enough for two patrons to descend abreast, where the distance between floors is from ten to twelve feet, is twenty-four persons to each story. Manifestly it is impossible to so limit the capacity.

"3. Eliminate the stairways by some means altogether from consideration, so as to make each story, for purposes of escape from danger, practically a first story or ground floor; that is, enable its occupants to flow out from it horizontally.

"To accomplish this a fire wall must be so arranged in a building as practically to bisect it. This wall also must be continuous fro meellar to roof and provided with doorways on each floor, closed by automatic fire doors. The building must be designed with two sets of egress facilities of ample proportions, one set located on each side of the wall, accessible from each floor. Fires are not at all likely to occur on both sides of this fire wall simultaneously, unless of incendiary origin. Should a fire occur, the alarm sounds and the occupants of the building on the side where the fire is merely have to pass through the doorways in the fire wall, close the doors after them and be comparatively safe.

"A fire will empty either side of a building so equipped, no matter how many stories high, in a minute. The refugees remain in the safe side of the building until the fire-fighters have overcome the danger, or they may at any time, without haste, use the egress facilities provided there, which would be free from smoke or fire.

"Until this standard of escape from fire is universally enforced by law there will be no intelligent solution of the fire problem anywhere.

"How much better then it would be in the first instance, before buildings are erected, to so design them that they can be emptied in three minutes, beyond which time it is not safe for occupants to remain in a burning building, and to ascertain this fact by using the exit test. If any building failed to meet this test its owners should refuse to accept it from the architect and building contractor. This is a prevention, not a cure, and is laying the ax at the root of the evil.

To solve this problem I advocate universal legislation requiring that architects and builders be prohibited from designing and erecting buildings which can not be emptied within three minutes after a given signal; that the municipal authorities be required to institute an exit test in each building, upon its completion, to determine if its proposed number of occupants can reach safety either through a fire wall or by stairs to the ground in three minutes, and that if the building can not pass this test, the proposed number of occupants should be peremptorily reduced until it has been altered so as to pass the test from time to time to see that the safe conditions originally established are maintained."

INTERPRETS LAW ON INCOME TAX

Local Revenue Officials Get Special Orders from Osborn

ABOUT COLLECTIONS

L. P. Sharp and C. M. Blue, deputy revenue collectors for the Fort Wayne revenue district, have been informed that income tax blanks will be ready for distribution in this territory not later than January 1, and in view of this, they are attempting to familiarize all eligibles for income tax with the provisions of the law covering that feature of the treasury department.

They have been asked by W. H. Osborn, commissioner of internal revenue, to make public a portion of an article in the current issue of Treasury Decisions, explanatory of a certain portion of the income tax law that it is understood has not heretofore been made clear to those who will later be compelled to pay the 1 per cent. asked for by the law. The decision follows:

"It has been called to the attention of this office that banks in certain sections of the country are refusing to pay coupons for interest on bonds of states, counties, cities or other political subdivisions of the United States, when such coupons are not accompanied by certificates of ownership, without deducting the normal income tax of 1 per cent, which the law and the regulations of this department require shall be deducted at the source in paying the interest on bonds of corporations, joint stock companies or associations and insurance companies.

"Please inform all parties interested, giving the information wide publicity, that the income derived from the interest upon the obligations of a state, county, city or any other political subdivision thereof, and upon the obligations of the United States or its possessions, is not subject to the income tax, and a certificate of ownership in connection with the coupons or registered interest orders for such interest will not be required.

"The interest coupons should clearly show on their fact whether they are issued by the United States or any political sub-division thereof. If, however, they do not clearly show this, then, of course, an ownership certificate should be required."

In conclusion the decision reads:

"Banks, bankers, trust companies and other banking institutions receiving deposits of money are not required under the treasury regulations to withhold at the source the normal income of 1 per cent. on the interest paid or accrued or accruing to depositors, whether on open accounts or on certificates of deposit; but all such interest, whether paid or accrued and not paid, must be included in his tax return by the person or persons entitled to receive such interest, whether on open account or on the certificate of deposit."

The Return of Blood Eruptions

No Reason Why Anyone Should Suffer Such Disheartening Experience.

No case of poisoned blood is ever cured until the last destructive germ has been eliminated from the system. And the only remedy that is assimilated in the tissues and stimulates cellular activity to overcome harmful germs is the famous S. S. S.

A few doses of this wonderful blood purifier will start such pronounced activities in the cellular tissues of the body as to soon show decided changes in the skin.

The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared by eminent authorities to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time even the worst skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up; the skin peels off in tiny flecks, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results.

The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S. which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutriment it requires for regeneration.

Not only this, but if from the presence of some disturbing poison there is a local or general interference of nutrition to cause boils, carbuncles, abscesses and kindred troubles, S. S. S. so directs the local cells that this poison is rejected and eliminated from their presence.

This fact has been demonstrated in cases of severe skin eruption that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store. If you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something else claimed to be "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by The Swift Specific Co., 215 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

"CRAZY BONE" KEY TO MYSTERY.

Physician Locates Trouble in Man Who Insisted Back Was Broken.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—When William Snyder, 607 James street, fell off a James street cable car between Sixth and Seventh avenues, he was lifted into the patrol wagon, despairing of his own life.

"My back's broken, and my right arm and my left leg's broken, too," said he. Dr. G. G. Campbell, of the City hospital staff, examined the man and could find nothing wrong. Snyder still insiste dthat he was fractured until his earnestness puzzled the physician. At length Dr. Compbell solved the mystery.

Snyder struck the "crazy bone" of his right arm when he fell.

Jeremiah 38:14-20.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the Lord: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the Lord liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hands of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the Lord, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

The Doctrine of Higher Levels

In a remarkable address delivered at St. Louis a day or two ago, Secretary of the Navy Daniels outlined what he termed the "new freedom" of American political thought, and eloquently preached the doctrine of a higher level in American statecraft and American public life. The eminent Southerner declared that this involved the elimination of all sectional prejudices, a wholesome, large-spirited patriotism and that sort of independence in political thinking which does not brand the man of opposite political party or of dissenting views as a traitor and a scoundrel of deepest dye.

That this "new freedom" is a living, growing, developing spirit in America today there is not the shadow of a doubt, and its advocacy by so eminent an authority as Mr. Daniels, whose party loyalty has never been called into question, shows effectually how deep the new view of things is permeating. The secretary hastened to explain that he did not include in his commendation those spineless individuals who are moved and swayed by every sort of doctrine and have no fixed convictions but who respond to whim and to prejudice. He concludes that a robust basic faith is essential to healthy Americanism, but deplores the narrowness that finds no good in opposition, that questions every motive of men who disagree with it. Despite the croakings of pessimists, we believe American political life is steadily rising to a higher level, and no element has been so great a factor in the progress as that sturdy independence that insists upon exercising its own judgment, that demands cleanliness in public as well as private life, and which concedes honesty of purpose to even its bitterest opponents. This doctrine of higher levels is the most hopeful sign in American public life today.

The Indianapolis Smoke Abatement League has taken a new step in insisting upon a provision in the new building code which will bar the use of bituminous coal within a "smoke limits" district if the use of such coal causes the emission of dense black or gray smoke. It simply means that unless adequate smoke-consuming devices are provided, concerns of every character within such district must use gas, coke, anthracite coal or other non-bituminous fuel must be used.

The proposition to set apart "river improvement days" in which citizens shall be invited to unite in a great volunteer army to clean up the river beds through Fort Wayne may after all be worth a trial. It will give numerous citizens an opportunity to demonstrate just how deeply they feel on the question of flood prevention, despite the fact that the work is properly public and not private enterprise.

Congressman J. A. M. Adair, of the Eighth district, has confided to friends that he will seek the democratic nomination for governor in 1916. The Portland man stands very high with the people, and should be a formidable candidate for the place.

The election of Attorney Jesse Macbeth to a place of high honor by the Indiana grand lodge of Odd Fellows is an event extremely gratifying to the hundreds of members of that fraternity in Fort Wayne. It is not only a merited recognition of Mr. Macbeth, but means the placing of the Fort Wayne man at the head of Indiana Odd Fellowship a few years hence.

You can take it from Provisional President Huerta's own lips that he's about the most patriotic little patriot Mexico has known in many a day.

here, and if sent to the court of St. James would talk the smartest dialect of the smartest set in London. For Mr. Wu is one of the smartest men on earth.

Herbert Quick.

He asks a mighty interesting question in the interview he accorded to Mr. Edwin J. Dingle. "Let us once get our masses in China educated as the Americans are educated, and China, now that she has dropped the fetters of royalty, will become the greatest nation on earth—yes, even greater than the United States!"

A republic of 300,000,000 people may be no better off and no greater in all that makes up the true grandeur of a nation than one of infinitely smaller proportions. How can the Chinese republic be any better or greater as a nation than the Chinese empire? By one way only—more individual plenty, and consequently more general happiness.

Unless the Chinese change their ways they will be as miserable under the republic as they have ever been. They are forever afraid of famine, or suffering it. The republic has no recipe for curing famine.

A recipe may be found, to be sure. Engineering works may be built for the reclamation of great areas of lands now subject to floods. The Chinese coal mines may become the fuel depot of the world. The republic may find water power which will make labor more efficient. Thus a living might be found for millions more than now inhabit the flowery republic.

But so long as the Chinese birthrate remains as high as it now is, the people will outnumber their resources. Wu Ting-Fang says that the Chinese have copied many useful things from the western nations. The thing they need most to copy they have not imitated—the low western birthrate. So long as their present multiplication continues poverty will continue; and so long as poverty persists, education is only a dream.

Wu Ting-Fang speaks of a time when all Chinese will be as well educated as Americans. He must give the boys and girls time to study or they can never become educated. He must give them prosperity so that they may think of something else besides food and children, or his education will do no good.

There is a lesson in this for all nations. Enlightenment, education, prosperity—all these are easy to the enlightened, educated and prosperous people. But general and grinding poverty like that of China is self-perpetuating. Our only hope for our own democracy is that our masses may never complete their descent into that gulf. China may climb out of it; but if she does—and we all hope she may—her rising will be a miracle the like of which this world has never seen.

It is easy to go down, hard to come up. HERBERT QUICK.

PRESS COMMENT ON NEW YORK STATE "GRAFT" HUNT.

The Indications.

New York Times: "The indications are that District Attorney Whitman has but begun to uncover conditions in which 'graft' is deeply imbedded."

The Fountainhead.

Boston Transcript: "State-wide appears to be the pursuit of graft in New York, but as the fountainhead and inspiration of it are located in the metropolis, that will be the headquarters from which operations will proceed."

Balancing Confessions.

Brooklyn Eagle: "District Attorney Whitman is balancing confessions and prosecution against one another. He is apparently indifferent as to which shall turn the scale."

Easy Sailing.

Watertown Standard: "Mr. Whitman may have some difficulty in having contractors admit that they were coerced into giving up to the bagmen, but he will have easy sailing in showing that those who stood out and declined to put up paid severely for their course."

A Greater Service.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Sulzer, personally and through Hennessy, his ablest aid, seems about to render a greater public service than that which was rendered by Tammany in the ousting of Sulzer."

Principals in Enterprise.

New York Tribune: "Who the principals in the blackmailing enterprise conducted by the 'bagmen' were is still for Mr. Whitman to find out. The chances are that he will do so."

Systematic Blackmail.

New York Post: "Systematic blackmail by the authorized agents of a great party—save the mark!—is what the district attorney is now engaged in hunting down."

Any One Surprised?

New York Globe: "Is there any one really surprised at the 'bagman' revelations? Is there a man or woman in the state unaware of the practice of shaking down contractors?"

Be Healthy, Happy, Vigorous

Trembling, Nervous Prostration and That Tired Feeling Vanish After a Treatment of Ambition Pills.

Every run down, weakened, tired out nervous person in Fort Wayne is invited to go to Meyer Bros. Co. this very day and get a 50 cent box of Wendell's Ambition Pills.

And Meyer Bros. Co. and dealers everywhere are authorized to refund the purchase price to every buyer if after taking one dose he is for any reason dissatisfied.

Don't delay; thousands have regained vigor, ambition and energy by the use of one box of Wendell's Ambition Pills.

Get them and take them for any nervous trouble, weakness, headaches, hysteria, neuralgia, sleeplessness, kidney, liver or stomach ailments, and for constipation. They will make anyone feel fine, happy and vigorous in a few days. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid by Wendell Pharmacal Company, Syracuse, N. Y.

THOUSANDS OF LIVES LOST THROUGH INEXPERINCE

Marvelous Results Are Shown By the Wonderful Scientific Methods Employed by the United Specialists.

Almost every day some grateful patient asks the United Specialists to give to the world the happy results that they have experienced from the extraordinary scientific methods of treatment they have received.

That the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity have confidence in the ability of these great specialists is proven by the fact that their offices are almost always crowded with people who have been unfortunately afflicted.

That the United Specialists have amply justified their belief in co-operative treatment can be readily proven by the numerous testimonals that have been published from time to time.

Mrs. Cora Hosack, 1330 Sinclair street, gladly writes:

"November 5, 1913.

"I began treatment with the United Specialists September 9, 1913, for a very severe case of kidney trouble and headache. The pain in my back was so great I could not go to bed, in fact most of the time. I was very weak and exhausted. At this time I am practically cured; or to say the very least, I am certainly greatly benefited. Any man or woman who is sick will sure not make a mistake if they will go to the United Specialists as I have done.

"MRS. CORA HOSACK."

Many men who had formerly been treated for years have asked the United Specialists to refer other men to them. They treat all chronic and nervous diseases, including Goitre, Rheumatism, all Stomach and Intestinal Troubles, Rectal Diseases, Epilepsy and all Special Diseases of Men and Women.

Their offices are located at 124 East Washington boulevard. They will examine the afflicted free of charge. They accept no incurable cases. Their hours are from 9-12, 1-5, 7-8 and 9-12 Sunday. —Advertisement.

PROFESSOR DIDIER DIES.

Passes Away in Detroit Where He Resided for Six Years.

Coming as a sorrowful shock to local relatives and friends is the announcement of the death of Professor Abel Francis Didier, who passed away Thursday at his home in Detroit at the age of fifty years. Mr. Didier was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Didier and a member of one of Fort Wayne's pioneer French families. He had resided in Detroit for the last six years. News of his death was telegraphed to a cousin, Miss Celia Oddou, of 212 East Columbia street.

Surviving he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Rosa Lavanway, of Detroit, with whom he made his home, and Sister Mary Celia, of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, and art teacher at St. Mary's academy at Alexandria, W. Va.

Professor Didier was well known in Fort Wayne and had been here on a visit less than two months ago. For some time during the period that the late Rev. P. P. Roche was pastor of the Cathedral, Professor Didier was in charge of the Cathedral Dramatic club. Later he secured a position as an instructor of chemistry at St. Jerome's college, Berlin, Canada. Later he held a position in the metallurgical department of a mining company in Detroit.

SECOND BLAZE IN OWN HOME.

Fire Fighter Returns From One Battle to Find Another.

Federalsburg, Md., Nov. 18.—Returning from a fire on South Main street, George Scott, proprietor of a dyeing and cleaning establishment, found his own place of business in flames. The property of Joseph Smith caught fire and Scott hurried to the scene at the first tap of the bell. He worked bravely and it was partly through his efforts that the Smith house was saved from destruction. When he returned he was completely exhausted but, seeing his own business burning, he pluckily fought his way through the fire and smoke and succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

The famous American tenor singer, Evan Williams, who will appear here with the Apollo club at its opening concert for the season on Thanksgiving eve, has sung for many victrola records and people are getting them out to hear them again before they attend the concert. Mr. Williams will appear on the program in three groups of songs and one other number, the famous "Lend Me Your Aid," by Gounod. There are many song records by Mr. Williams in the city and the music stores are taking pleasure in playing them for interested people. Another of the big songs of the program which this great singer will give is "Your Tiny Hands," by Puccini.

A visiting musician in the city today is Brahm Friedman, a young violinist of Marion. Mr. Friedman, accompanied at the piano by his sister, Fannie, played before the Morning Musical society this morning. He is remarkably talented and his playing displays in addition to an excellent technical equipment, an intelligence and temperament that are certainly most promising. Mr. Friedman was received with great enthusiasm. His two big numbers were the "Souvenir de Moscow" by Wieniawsky and a "Rondo Capriccioso" by Saint-Saens. They were admirably handled from every standpoint of violin musical work. Mr. Friedman played here a year ago at a musical at which Mrs. Florence Huebner-Dukes was one of the hostesses. Mrs. Dukes was chairman of the program this morning and the society had the pleasure of hearing the same violinist again through her influence.

Miss Helen Colerick is entertaining Miss Helen McFarland, of Camden, Ind.

Mrs. Fred Tresselt and Mrs. Al Alter have returned from a two weeks' stay at West Baden.

Mrs. Anna B. Hammond, of Corona, Cal., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank P. Mensch, 204 Fourth street.

Master Stephen Bond went to Chicago today to remain over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bond.

Mrs. George Betzler of 117 West Wayne street, has gone to Indianapolis for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Taylor, of Louisville, Ky., are coming here to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Clark Fairbank.

Mrs. George Koons, of West Wayne street, has gone to South Bend to visit Mr. and Mrs. John G. Betzler and attend the Knights of Columbus annual ball.

Miss Campbell, of Edinburgh, Scotland, who has been visiting Miss Ada Burdette, has gone to California to spend the winter.

Mrs. H. H. Rogers has gone to Springfield, Ill., for a week's visit with Mrs. Jack Meyer, who had been visiting here.

Mrs. C. F. Kettler, of East Jefferson street, celebrated her birth anniversary yesterday afternoon by entertaining a dozen intimate friends and relatives during the afternoon and at a bountiful supper.

Mrs. John Macy returned today to Winchester after a visit with Miss Elizabeth Porter, of West Wayne street. A number of small gatherings of intimate girlhood friends have been given in honor of Mrs. Macy.

The Misses Helen Wilt, Jane Safford and Helen Eckart are coming home from Indianapolis, where they are students at Tudor Hall, to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents.

Mrs. David Eckert, of South Calsoun street, entertained a few ladies at a thimble party yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. George Feustel, who will leave soon for Los Angeles to be gone some time.

A pleasant affair was given on George Huber, jr., at his home, 1717 South Hanna street, yesterday by sixteen of his friends, who called to assist in celebrating his eighteenth birthday anniversary.

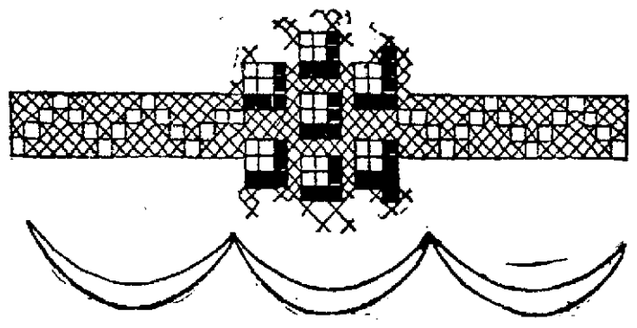
Mrs. Bernard Coyle entertained the La Mode club, of which she is a member, this afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Agnes Schuler, 802 East Jefferson street. There are a dozen members of this social club and they spent a delightful time.

The members of the Friday Bridge club enjoyed a luncheon and an afternoon of their favorite game today at the English Tea room. Mrs. S. B. Fleming was the hostess. The tables at the luncheon were decorated in pink sweetpeas and roses.

Friends and relatives here have received cards announcing the marriage of Miss Delphine O'Connor and Mr. William Parker Cooper, which took place on Tuesday, November 18, in Chicago. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. O'Connor and a niece of B. S. O'Connor, of this city.

The members of the Bachelors Girls' club proved to be charming hostesses at an informal party they gave on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Vivian Closs. Progressive bunco was the principal amusement and music, dancing and refreshments were other pleasures of the time. The favors in the card game were won by Misses Genevieve Berling and Marjorie Bradley and Messrs. Joseph Finan and Bob Anderson. The members of the club and their guests were Rose Tonsing, Grace Brannan, Marjorie Bradley, Genevieve Berling, Emely McKinnie, Irma and Julia Brannan, Gertrude Goetz, Vivian Closs and Messrs. H. Weaver, Frank Goetz, Gene Doyle, Herbert Telly, Vincent Shea, Amos Jockel, Bob Anderson, Al Brink and Joseph Finan.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR MOTHER.



CROSS STICH EMBROIDERY.

Any little girl of eight or ten can embroider a towel for mother in cross stitch from the pattern shown here.

Mother will probably remember when she made cross stitch embroidery. If she don't grandmother will.

The stripe across the towel is made of two shades of blue mercerized crewels. Use the lightest in the stitches that are marked with a cross and the darkest in the little squares.

Now make the cross stitches of green in the boquets and the four stitches that are marked with the horizontal line of light pink and the little squares of dark red.

Big sister will show you how to "button hole" the edges of the towel or may be she will do it for you in plain white cotton.

KITCHENETTES

If the pantry shelves have no doors, put a window shade on a roller in front of them and pull down the shade when not in use. It will make a real protection against dust.

Put a few drops of oil of lavender in bookcases to prevent mildew on the books.

Oatmeal put to soak in water the night before only requires about one-half the time to cook.

When shutting up a house for a long time, pack the silver in dry flour and keep the forks, knives and spoons together, arranging in layers with flour in between. The silver will remain perfectly bright and untarnished.

It is not hard to blanch almonds. Shell almonds and cover them with boiling water for two or three minutes; drain, put into cold water and rub off the skins. Dry with a towel.

SOME NEW IDEAS FOR HOME SEWERS.

Always wear a white apron when sewing on dark material, as this relieves the strain on the eyes.

Make buttonholes on both sides of a lingerie waist, but sew the buttons on a white tape and button them to the button side. When the waist goes to the laundress remove the buttons. The same tape of buttons can be used on several waists.

Wheat heads may be made in two ways. You can either pad the kernels and cover them in Kensington stitch, working from tip to base, or they may be made entirely in bullion stitch. To make the bullion stitch, bring the floss to the right side, insert the needle at the top of the space to be covered and bring the needle through at the bottom of the space, leaving the thread in a long, loose loop. Now wind the needle with the thread, always winding toward the left. Draw the needle through the loops of thread, insert the needle at the top of the space again and draw closely down to the material. It requires some practice to become proficient in making the bullion stitch, but it is a very useful and lovely form of needlecraft.

TIMELY TIPS.

Celery should lie at least half an hour in cold water or upon ice before serving in order to be firm and crisp.

Stuffed olives, chopped fine, mixed with cream cheese and made into balls, are delicious if served with a plain salad.

Chicken salad is delicious if mixed with small pieces of green pepper and mayonnaise. Press the meat into proper cases.

AT THE TEMPLE

Nobody finds a dull moment at the Temple vaudeville bill that opened yesterday. Such a succession of funny acts, one after another, with several surprises sandwiched in between, keeps expectancy keyed to the top notch. The Wilson Brothers, real comedians, in a talkfest that would make a sick man laugh, are way at the top in their specialty. The particular expression of their talk is "Go out," and that is the name of the act, but there's no way of describing it so as to tell the fun. It must be seen, or rather it is too good to miss. The audiences were simply "crazy" about them yesterday.

One of the surprises was the appearance of Seibel's winter circus in place of the Rehlander pigs. The circus is as pretty and pleasing an act as could be found anywhere. An appreciation was shown by the way people kept their seats and applauded frequently. The ponies are what the children would call "darlings" and they sure can perform and without a word that the major portion of the audience can hear.

Case and Rogers have an act they call "The Baggage Man." Mr. Case appears first and sings entertainingly, but when Mr. Rogers appears then there is something doing. The act is very snappy and clean and the singing just the kind one wants in vaudeville. Mr. Rogers has a fresh and beautiful toned tenor voice.

"The Watch" is the name of a sketch presented by Charles W. Bowser, Miss Flora Dorset, formerly of Our Own Stock company. Miss Ethel Dane and Harold Parks. Mr. Bowser is a finished actor and his support is good, but the charm of the playlet is in the surprise of its ending, which is wholly unexpected.

Rice and Franklin have a good line of comedy singing and talking that brought a flattering amount of applause, and Cornella and Wilbur, who style their work as the "bump act," display a skill in acrobatics that delighted all judges of that line of entertainment. There is considerable nonsense in the act and it pleased mightily.

AT THE EMPRESS

Tonight brings the big novelty in amateur stunts at the Empress theater. "The Flour Dive," it is called, and this in addition to the regular bill of seven features will make it necessary for those who desire the choicest seats to buy early. The amateur contest for this evening will include besides a three-round boxing bout between two speedy youngsters, the efforts of six little colored boys to capture from ass many pans of flour a similar number of silver dollars. The stunt was given once before at the Empress and easily proved the biggest laughing card in the entire list of amateur contests. The boys are going into the affair in earnest tonight, for the first to appear with his dollar is to be the winner of the remaining five. It can safely be predicted that there will be some tall blowing of flour about the stage.

One of the solid hits of the current bill are the Six Cecilian Maids. These young women play exceptionally well and the voice of one of the number is excellent. With a program of semi-classic and popular airs happily intermingled, the result is most gratifying to all sorts of crowds. Bert Leslie continues to stir up the laugh germ with his original skit and character "Hogan, The Painter," while other acts appearing that help to make up an entertaining bill are the Jessika Troupe, James and Prior, Brown Blyer and Jennings and Dorman, besides Kinemacolor pictures.

TO NOMINATE OFFICERS.

The United Spanish War Veterans Association of Fort Wayne will hold a special meeting next Monday evening at the G. A. R. hall in the Lincoln National Life building and officers will be nominated for the annual election, to be held in January.

August C. Hartwig, of this city, will again be a candidate for re-election as state secretary at the annual convention to be held in Muncie next year.

WHITE HAIR THE STYLE.

In Paris, the center of all sensational fashions, white hair is now proclaimed the very smartest thing. In fact, so popular has the craze become that even young girls are taking to wearing patches of white hair over their own brilliant locks. Some are actually wearing all-white wigs, after the fashion of our great grandmothers. It is a quaint and pretty fashion.

TO HOLD CAMPAIGN.

Real Estate Men Organize to Take Subscriptions.

The membership of the Fort Wayne Real Estate Exchange, divided into two separate teams, will start out next Monday morning in a canvass among the business houses of the city for subscriptions to the National Real Estate Journal. The campaign is to be held primarily for the purpose of increasing interest among business men in real estate matters. If 250 subscriptions are secured a game dinner is to be served Tuesday evening, December 2, at which time the exchange will hold its annual election of officers.

The exchange has divided itself into teams as follows:

The Blue—Lee J. Ninde, colonel; E. H. Kilbourne, William P. Walsh, Frank Smitley, R. H. Carlson, F. J. Brown, V. V. Miller, A. W. Curdes, Charles Ashley, C. S. Kitch, W. H. Roberts, H. P. Scherer, L. H. Moore, Isaac d'Isay, E. L. Wampler, C. J. Lomont, H. W. Sigrist, C. D. Nolan, C. E. Hadsell, William Klomp, Charles Naughton.

The Red—Frank H. Hilgeman, colonel; Louis Curdes, Joseph A. Haley, W. H. Ingham, Ben Rousseau, Jacob Hartman, C. G. Strieder, Edmund Rieke, James Peddicord, T. W. Risk, H. E. Dial, Herman Goldstine, J. J. Stockberger, W. H. Bieber, W. E. Doud, Fred Lambert, J. P. Disser, George Ashley, R. Parker Smith, John W. Brewer, D. C. Stout, J. D. Banning.

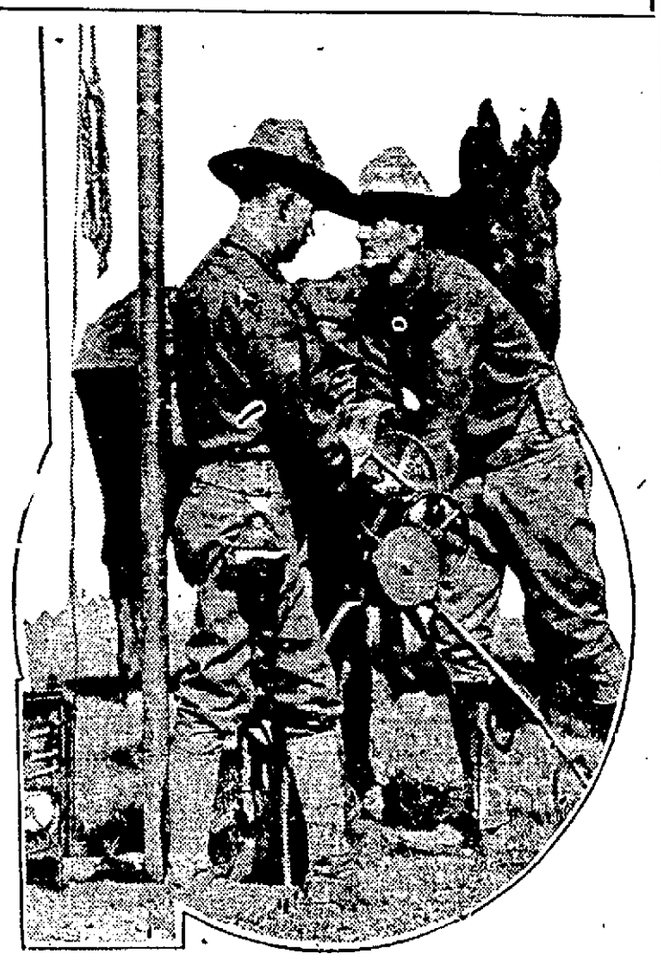
HOW OUR BOYS ON THE BORDER GET THEIR "MESSAGE TO GARCIA."



(By W. H. Durbrough.)

On the Border With the Army, Nov. 20.—When Gen. Carter wants to send a message to a subordinate officer in command at a distant point or to the firing line in a practice battle, does he write his message on tissue paper, wrap it in a capsule and give it to a trusty scout to deliver at the risk of losing his life?

No, he scribbles a few words on paper, hands it to a messenger of the signal corps, and a minute or so later the other officer, 250 miles away, will be reading it.

You see, the army uses the wireless down here on the Mexican border.

It is in the efficiency of the signal corps especially that the United States army of today stands far ahead of the army of years ago.

For instance: The radio wireless section of Company D, signal corps, second division, U. S. A., can set up its outfit in one minute and thirty seconds. It can set up, send a ten-word message thirty-five miles and be on the run again in ten minutes! Then consider the "Telefunken radio telegraph" outfit used on battleships and in the field. It was bought from Germany in 1910, and, outside that country, the United States is the only one that can use it.

This outfit consists of two wagons, one power and one instrument. Operators can send wireless messages 250 miles over land or water. Two operators can receive separate messages at the same time over the same wire.

The wire section of Company D can lay and take up wire on the run, six miles to each cart, on ground or through water, as the wire is heavily insulated.

Field radio wireless section of Company D setting up the wireless outfit and sending a message thirty-five miles. The outfit is carried on the pack mules.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Ha'l's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

An Everyday View of the Next Sunday School Lesson

Lesson text, Joshua 1:1-9. Golden text, Joshua 1:9, "Be strong and of good courage."

The contrast between Joshua and Moses is marked. One was a soldier, the other a prophet. As to Joshua's boyhood we know only by inference. He belonged to the tribe of Ephraim and was the twelfth in line from Joseph. He was probably born at Goshen and at about the time that Moses fled to Midian. God prepares things long in advance of the need of them. Moses at 40 years, flying before the face of vengeance, little thought that among the slave cabins of Israel a child was being born whose life would one day become a part of his own.

God's estimate of us can best be measured by what he gives us to do. Moses was to lead the people out of Egypt, while Joshua was to lead them into Canaan. One was essential to the other. Each required an ability that the other did not possess. And yet Moses was by far the greater man. His prophetic endowment brought him face to face with God. Joshua's office was more remote. He also communed with God, but through the priesthood. Nowhere is the superiority of the pen over the sword given clearer illustration. Men are great only within their own sphere. That of Moses ended at the Jordan, while it was there that Joshua's began.

Martial Ability of Joshua Shows Itself in His First Battle.

Where Joshua learned the art of war we do not know, but Moses was not slow to discover his marked ability. Napoleon claimed that his patent dates from his first battle and to a similar source history credits the beginning of Joshua's career. The children of Israel but three months after they had gone out from Egypt were attacked by the Amalekites at Rephilim and there followed one of the bloodiest battles ever fought in the desert. In that battle Joshua, a young man of 40, commanded. The victory was complete, and from then on he was the one man on whom the lawgiver constantly relied. He accompanied him to the summit of Sinai and waited like a sentinel at the door of the sanctuary, while his master talked with God. No mission was too great to be confided to him. He was one of the twelve spies sent forward to observe the country and he returned with heart aflame for the attack. But the people refused to advance, and for thirty-eight years he shared in the obscurity of Israel.

But no time is ever lost in the plans of God. Moses and Joshua finally returned to the borders of Canaan, one to die, and the other to assume his place. Tradition says that Joshua, appalled at the stupendous work before him, rent his garment and fell weeping at the feet of Moses, but the lawgiver raised him from the earth and assured him that he alone was the choice of God. If this be true it recalls a similar scene in Midian, when Moses at the burning bush hesitated to face the responsibility that God would lay upon him. Hesitation is not always the effect of doubt. It may be a sense of humility born of real worth.

God in the Shadows Cast by the Death of Moses.

The death of Moses occurred at what must have seemed a time most disastrous to the welfare of Israel. The Israelites stood upon the shores of a sea. What lay beyond it? The familiar form which they had followed for forty years had passed into the eternal shadows. But God is always in the shadows. He never forgets his own. This was as true in the day of Joshua as it is now. Those thirty days of mourning that followed the death of Moses were not merely conventional. They held genuine sorrow. But work is a great comforter. The son must put hand to the plow and complete the furrow.

"Moses my servant is dead." That was God's eulogy. Moses had been his servant and God could say nothing more. No monument was needed to perpetuate his memory. What he had been would survive. His grave may be unknown, but his service is immortal.

Life succeeds death. "Now therefore arise, go into this Jordan, thou, and all the people." Their future lay upon the other side. The conquest of Canaan was in the interest of morality. The Phoenicians were a commercial people and the Hittites, too, were a people of culture, but their religion was death. The one God who forms the basis of the present civilization they knew nothing about. The country belonged to God; he had given it to Israel.

Joshua was to attempt the conquest with full confidence of success. Nothing else could accomplish it. Two things were essential, faith in God and faith in himself. The God of Moses was to be also his God. But Joshua must also contribute of his own strength. He had courage and must use it. Until one has exhausted his own resources he has no right to appeal to God.

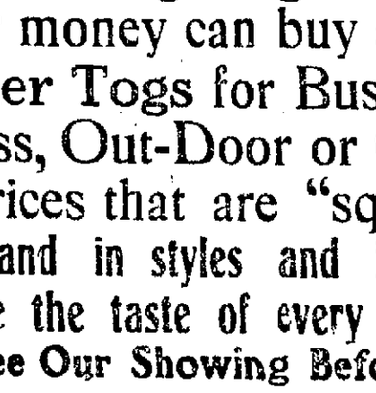
Guide of Moses to Be Also the Guide of Joshua.

But he must go about his task in a rational way. The written law was to be his guide. Joshua was to sail his craft by the same compass that had guided Moses all his life. Then having selected his course he must turn neither to the right nor to the left. Constancy of purpose is essential to all true success. In times of doubt and despair he could not falter. The commands of God are ever possible to obey, else they had not been given.

Before everyone lies the conquest of life. The same counsel that God gave Joshua he gives to all. The principles laid down on the banks of the Jordan lost none of their force when applied to the present. Truth is universal. Methods vary, but purposes are the same. The God of Moses was not only the God of Joshua—he is the God of every one who waits to serve him.

The American elm has many times demonstrated its superior value as a street or lawn tree. It is not nearly as subject to disease or insects as many other trees.

-THE- PIANO



Is the only instrument that the Ages have produced to inspire the love of Music in all—you should secure a Piano or Player of which you may be proud for a lifetime.

It is not necessary that you pay five or eight hundred dollars in order to be absolutely certain of getting an Instrument of unquestionable Character. It only requires care in Selection. You may select either a Piano or Player-Piano at the Jacobs Music House and feel safe that you have the very best instrument that money can buy—as Mr. Jacobs is a cash buyer—independent of any Manufacturer and can buy what he knows to be the very best that money and skill can produce, of which you also derive the benefit. You will not only find the most celebrated stock of Instruments at his store, but also the largest in the state, where you can compare the different grades to your own satisfaction.

Call at our store before making a purchase and give us a chance to prove to you the Truth of our Statement. At your Service.

SAYS FATHER IS "HE" SUFFRAGETTE

MISSES NO SESSIONS

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—Eight years ago little Miss Sadie Gompers accompanied her famous father to an A. F. of L. convention in Boston. She saw scores of strange men who smoked and talked continually, and she was tremendously bored.

It was her first convention.

Miss Gompers, buxom, dignified and earnest, is now here attending her second. She hasn't missed a session. She is enormously interested.

Between sessions Miss Gompers walks and walks. She always takes long walks before breakfast. If you would interview her, you must walk, too.

Fourteen years of the life of the "baby" of President Gompers' family have been spent in Washington, D. C. Her chum is Miss Agnes Wilson, daughter of the secretary of labor. Miss Wilson doesn't approve of Washington society. She says it is snobbish, undemocratic and un-American.

As the daughter of a member of the president's official family, she has, of course, entre to all semi-official functions. But she steadfastlyy refuses to be clubby.

"Of Course," said Miss Gompers to the pursuing and panting interviewer, "Agnes goes out a lot more than I. We—my mother and I—get invitations, but we don't go, and father is too busy.

"Please don't make it appear that I am criticising Washington society. They seem to enjoy themselves. Personally, I don't see any fun in standing for hours in a crush waiting to shake a line of limp hands, scrambling with others for messy refreshments and making nice, perfunctory speeches to people whom you don't know, and don't want to know, and who are as bored as you are.

"There are, as you will find out if you try, just as nice people in the house next door or in the next block as in 'society,'"

Miss Gompers, whom veteran delegates who first saw her in Boston eight years ago remember as a romping little girl with fat legs, a dimpled chin and a bashful smile, has developed into a modern maid of modern ideas.

She is a suffraget.

"For that matter, father is a he one," she explained.

ESPERANTOISTS TO FEAST.

Local Language Society to Enjoy Supper at Y. W. C. A.

Members of the recently organized Esperanto society in this city will meet at 5:30 o'clock Saturday evening at the Young Women's Christian association home, where they will enjoy an "Esperanto Supper." Students of the international auxiliary language will attempt to put into practical use whatever they have learned thus far and everybody interested in esperanto is invited to attend.

ATTORNEY'S FEE IS CONTESTED

Banks Say $7,500 is Too Much for Judge Olds in Kerr Murray Case.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Sol A. Wood, sitting as special judge in the circuit court today is hearing the protest of the First, Old and Hamilton National banks to the petition of Judge Walter Olds for an allowance of $7,500 as his fee as attorney for the Tri-State Loan and Trust company, receiver for the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company. Judge Olds maintains that the fee is his due for the long term that the litigation has been pending. The banks protest that the fee is excessive and unreasonable. Judge Olds has presented the testimony of many lawyers that what he asks is not too much for the service rendered.

Wants $5,000 Damages.

John J. Leikauf has sued the Consumers' Ice company for $5,000 damages alleged to have been inflicted upon his personal property by reason of the stoppage by the defendant of a drain that serves the basement of the Hake building on Wells street, where the plaintiff's market and warerooms are located. The complaint says that because of acts of the defendant water was backed up and hot water, steam and vapor got into the basement of his leased building and ruined 15,000 pounds of rendered lard in tin pails and practically ruined a large ice machine.

A. E. Hoffman Will is Filed.

A will disposing of the large estate of the late A. Ely Hoffman has been admitted to probate in the circuit court. To the widow is given $5,000 cash, the homestead, corner of Wayne and Broadway, all personal property, the income from 200 shares of stock in the Hoffman Lumber company and the interest proceeds of the testator's life insurance after investment in real estate mortgages. The stock of the Hoffman Lumber company is given to Frederick E. Hoffman, H. Brooke Sale, Katherine Kline and Emily R. Hoffman, nephews and nieces of the decedent. At the death of the widow the invested proceeds of the insurance policies are to be given one-half to W. W. Atterbay, a son-in-law, the remaining half divided equally among Frederick E. Hoffman, Katherine Kline and Emily R. Hoffman. Cash bequests of $5,000 to Eleanor B. Melick and $2,000 to Alice B. Torrence are made and the residue of the estate is then divided as follows:

Five per cent. each to H. Brooke Sale, Frederick E. Hoffman, Katherine Kline and Emily R. Hoffman, and 16 per cent. each to Henry A. Wise, Francis B. Sale, Jessamine Sale, Henry Hoffman and Annie Hoffman.

Frederick E. Hoffman and H. Brooke Sale are named as executors of the will.

Notes of the Courts.

Helen V. Burns has sued George R. Hartman, et al., to reform a deed and quiet title. The case is brought in the superior court.

Alfred D. Cressler has filed a claim of $4,012.19 against the estate of the late Elizabeth E. Cressler, for taxes paid on the estate and for medical attendance and funeral expenses.

A new complaint has been filed in the circuit court by Mary G. Lords, administratrix of the estate of the late Herman Lords, against the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, for $10,000 damages for the death of the deceased, who was a fireman at the defendant's power plant and was killed when a condenser exploded. The original suit was dismissed on error of the complaint.

The suit of Robert S. Romy vs. Byron S. Thompson to quiet title to real estate, has been dismissed from the circuit court.

SUDO SMITH IN JAIL AGAIN.

Sudo Smith, living near Arcola, was arrested today by Deputy Sheriffs Courdeve and Mills and is now lodged in jail. He was out on surety of peace bond and this morning his bondsman, Barney Hutchinson, came in and surrendered him, following an attack by Smith with a hatchet on his brother, whom he run off the place. Then Smith started after his wife, who fled, and the alarm was given. Smith has been repeatedly arrested for similar conduct.

DR. CHARLES ROSENTHAL DIES.

Well-Known Dentist Passed Away Suddenly in Cincinnati.

Dr. Charles Rosenthal, a widely known dentist throughout the middle west, and a member of a prominent Fort Wayne family, died very suddenly at a hospital in Cincinnati at the age of 55 years. He had been a resident of Cincinnati for thirty years. News of his untimely death comes as a great shock to local relatives and friends, as he had been in Fort Wayne only three week sago for a visit and was apparently in the best of health.

According to word received here he became ill with a severe cold shortly after returning home, but his condition grew better and he was able to spend several hours each day at his office. Returning to his home Wednesday evening he left a street car and entered a hospital. His family physician and members of his family were summoned but medical aid failed to relieve his suffering and he passed away very suddenly.

Surviving besides his widow and two children, John at home, and Mrs. L. Fleming, of Detroit, he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Dr. M. I. Rosenthal, Dr. J. M. Rosenthal and Mrs. Joseph Lohman, of this city; Mrs. Louis Frankel, of Chicago, and Mrs. Cyrus Arnold, of Detroit. Relatives in this city are at Cincinnati today to attend the funeral services.

The deceased was a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. I. M. Rosenthal, of this city. He obtained an early education in the public and parochial schools of this city, and later graduated from the Cincinnati College of Dentistry, and a short time later entered actively in the practice of his profession in that city.

Jess Willard, the pugilist, has agreed to referee the two boxing bouts in connection with the amateur show at the Empress theater this evening.

Society

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Koehl, of Marion street, entertained the members of the Friendship club at their home last evening. The first prizes were won by Mrs. Bert Pequignot and William Moran and the consolations by Mrs. William Mums and Jacob Koehl. Mrs. Moran will be the next hostess for the club.

One of the merry companies of the week took place on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Likely, of 3126 Lafayette street. The day was celebrated because it was the anniversary of Mr. Likely's birth. Progressive pedro was the special amusement. Afterwards a luncheon was served that was much enjoyed. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dibble, Mr. and Mrs. Klare Kephart, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Perrey, Mrs. L. J. Kitzelman and daughter, Hazel; Miss Clara G. Gagen, Mr. and Mrs. Dibble, Mr. Kephart and Miss Kitzelman won the prizes. Mr. Likely received a number of souvenirs of the day.

Next week Elsie E. Deahl, who has been the chief clerk in the trainmaster's office of the Chicago division of the Nickel Plate, will take service on the road and will be succeeded as chief clerk by F. C. Jenne. E. H. Moeller, stenographer for Chief Clerk P. J. H. Myers in the Fort Wayne division office, will succeed Mr. Jenne as assistant chief clerk. These changes are promotions for the men affected.

BUNNER FUNERAL HELD HERE.

Remains Shipped to Montpelier, Ind., for Burial.

The remains of Mrs. E. A. Bunner, wife of the former Methodist Episcopal pastor at Huntertown, arrived in Fort Wayne at 3 o'clock and were taken to the Klaehn & Melching chapel, where funeral services were held at 3:30 this afternoon, members of the local M. E. clergy officiating. A large number of Rev. Brunner's former parishioners from Huntertown attended the funeral.

At 5 o'clock this evening the body was shipped to Montpelier for interment.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CALLED.

The fire department chemical was called to the residence of Mrs. Clara Purcell, 421 East Berry street, at 11:20 o'clock this morning to extinguish a burning pile of rubbish in the barn. No damage is reported.

IN THE CHURCHES

REPENTANCE IS IMPORTANT STEP

It Opens Way to Kingdom of God, Says Evangelist in Sermon.

THE KERR MEETINGS

SOME EPIGRAMS BY EVANGELIST KERR.

"Too many people are putting life's emphasis in the wrong place. The Kingdom of God is not meat and drink."

"If we had more Spirituality in the reches we would have more Sociabi!y."

"Religion is the one thing that gives Culture its finishing touch of beauty."

"A man may be cultured and educated and have a black and devilish heart."

"Repentance not good works is the way into the kingdom of God."

"Righteousness and Peace are twin sisters and go hand in hand."

"Joy is a Spiritual tonic: absolutely necessary to the Christian."

"A multitude of people have their harps hung on the willows, like the Israelites in the strange land. They have no joy in their lives. They carry heavy hearts in silent grief."

"Repentance" was the theme of Evangelist H. W. Kerr, who addressed another large audience last night in the revival services in progress at Wayne Street M. E. church, and some gems from his sermon will be found above.

Interest in the meetings is growing rapidly, and the evangelists will be heard nightly during this and next week, except Saturdays.

WHICH LOT WILL YOU BUY?

Evangelist Brown Delivers "My Real Estate Sermon."

Evangelist John T. Brown preached last night at the Third Church of Christ, Creighton avenue and Smith street, on what he called, "My Real Estate Sermon." He said in part:

"There are two lots for sale. There is no question about the title of one; there is a question as to the title of the other. In fact, many lawyers and others say that a clear title cannot be gotten. Which lot would you buy?

"You would certainly take the one about which there is no question as to title. Why not reason the same way about your soul? If you become a Christian and live a Godly life, if there is no God, you have not lost anything; you have been a better man. If there is a God, you have all to gain. If universal salvation is true and you live a Christian life, you have everything to gain and nothing to lose; if it is false and you fail to become a Christian then everything is lost. If predestination is true and you are a Christian you have not lost anything by being one. If you think God predestined you to eternal death and refuse to become a Christian and find when you stand before the Great Judge that your salvation depended upon your obedience to Christ then you have lost all."

A large chart will be used tonight to illustrate the sermon. There will also be an illustrated song. Saturday night the evangelist is to give his popular lecture on "Sam Houston and the Alamo." He will describe in a graphic way how a handful of Americans put to flight the whole army of Mexico. Sunday is to be the crowning day of the revival.

PLAN THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Miss Anna Philley Will Give Reading at First Baptist Church.

Miss Anna Philley, teacher of expression in Fort Wayne, has given successfully during the past year a number of profitable evenings with living pictures. Large audiences have paid to see these and hear the readings. Sunday night at 7:30 Miss Philley will present "Paul Before Agrippa" in pantomime in the First Baptist church, in which she will be aided by a number of the young people.

In addition the "Zimmerman" full orchestra will play a number of their noted selections during the evening. These will be aided by the church orchestra and quartet.

"Agrippa's Answer to Paul" will be presented by the pastor, Rev. Snashall in a ten minute address.

Special song service with the help of the Zimmerman and church orchestras. Rev. John Walton and wife, the English evangelists, also beautiful singers, will begin revival meetings beginning Sunday night at the Oliver Baptist mission, corner McKee street. Rev. Walton is famed for his moving picture machines, which he uses freely in his meetings. Sunday night he shows "The Woman of Samaria."

DR. J. A. BEATTY SPEAKS.

Tells Audience of Young People Not to Follow Example of Lot.

"Young Men's Night" was celebrated last night at the Trinity M. E. church with great success as a large number of young people were present. Rev. J. A. Beatty, superintendent of the Fort Wayne district of the Methodist Episcopal church delivered an address on the lesson drawn from the story of the separation of Lot and Abraham and of Lot pitching his tent toward Sodom. He said that many young men of today are following the example of Lot by pitching their tent toward the material things in life and lose their character just as Lot did.

Rev. Frank Ruf, formerly assistant superintendent of the orphans' home of the Reformed church of this city, will conduct the services this evening. The services are progressing rapidly and the attendance is increasing each night.

Church Notes.

The Young People of the West Creighton Avenue Church of Christ will meet this evening at the church to have a supper at 8 o'clock and to have a general good time.

The Ladies of the Plymouth Congregational church will hold a sale of baked goods at the gas office all day tomorrow.

The Walther league of the Emmaus Lutheran church will give a smoker and entertainment at their hall Monday evening, November 24. The committee in charge is making all necessary arrangements and a full membership is anticipated.

The Mutual society of St. Paul's Walther League will meet this evening at their temporary rooms in the old High school building.

Adroit Class Elects.

The Adroit class of the Third Presbyterian church held their semi-annual business meeting last evening and elected the following officers: President, Mr. Sessions; vice president, Mr. Heckney; recording secretary, Doyal White; corresponding secretary, J. M. Fitch; treasurer, Martin Blue; chorister, Ben Welsheimer. These young men meet every Sunday morning at 9:30, corner Harrison and Taber streets, in historical and bible study. Plans were launched for the next month's social stunt, which is looked forward to with interest by all members, who earnestly invite visitors and who will be glad to welcome a candidate for membership, so come and help along the motto, "We Work to Win."

Grace Reformed Bazar Opens.

The bazar which is being held at the Grace Reformed church was well attended at the opening night last night and a large per cent of the goods in stock was sold. The booths were artistically decorated in the different colors of the many organizations of the church. Tonight will be the last night and since the different Sunday school classes have worked to make the bazar a success all the people of the church are asked to be present. All strangers are welcome as well.

Nurse Proclaims Skin Cure

Myrtle Hahn Says D. D. D. Prescription is Worth Rockefeller's Millions to Her.

"Ten years I suffered with eczema—three years of that time I could not appear in public. My entire body was covered with the disease. I could not eat. I could not sleep. I could not live. I have at last found the great Prescription D. D. D. My body is clean, smooth. If there were one bottle only of D. D. D. in the world and I had it, Mr. Rockefeller's millions could not buy the golden field."

Miss Myrtle Hahn (in care Old Ladies' Home, Durham, N. C.)

How about you?

If you have any skin blemish or a little rash, do not let it develop into something more serious. Remember D. D. D. Prescription has been recognized for fifteen years as the standard skin remedy. It always helps, and if used according to directions, it should cure in a short while.

All druggists sell this standard remedy, but if you come to us, we will offer you the first full size bottle with the guarantee that unless it stops the itch at once we will refund the purchase price. Ask also about the equally efficient skin soap.

TAMA, WOMAN SLEUTH, JUST LOVES TO NAB BURGLARS.

MRS. TAMA SOLOMON, WHO BEAT CHICAGO DETECTIVES BY ARRESTING BIG ROBBERY SUSPECT SINGLE HANDED.

Chicago, Nov. 21—The latest feminine type is "Tama, the woman sleuth."

Mrs. Tama Solomon has always longed, she says, to be either a pirate or a detective. But the pirating business has fallen off, so she haunted the office of Captain Halpin, chief of Chicago detectives, asking him to "put her on the force."

Halpin was dubious. But when Isaac Stein's store on West Twelfth street was robbed of $5,000 worth of clothing, he decided to give her a chance.

Arnold Baum, a former employe of the store, with a couple of aliases to his credit, was suspected.

"There has been a lot of big burglaries of this sort lately," said Halpin. "There's a gang at work, and whether Baum did this job or not, he's probably mixed up with the gang, and knows about it. Anyhow, we want to talk to Baum. Run along, little girl, and get him. He only weighs 200 pounds."

Tama, the woman sleuth, saluted, and was gone.

She disguised herself as a beggar and made the rounds of all the saloons and pool rooms in the Maxwell street district.

Nothing doing in the saloons and pool rooms. But the next night she struck a "lead." Then she doffed her beggar disguise and "made up," as she expresses it, "like a Halstead street chicken." For two nights she was on the trail. At 4 a. m. the second night she missed Baum by only a few minutes.

The third night she was back on the job again, and after three hours' promenading she sighted her prey.

"It was easy enough," she says. "I just started a little flirtation with him, and got him to take a walk with me. I led him around past Stein's store, to see how he'd act. He was nervous, especially when I made him stop in front of the door. Then I knew I had my man.

"I slid my hands quick down both sides of him to see if he had a gun, then I jerked my revolver out of my handbag, poked it in his ribs, grabbed him by the collar and yanked him into the doorway. He struggled a little, but soon quieted down.

"'Now, we'll finish our little walk,' I says—'to the station.'"

On the way two or three policemen offered to take her prisoner off her hands, but she answered: "Fade away! I can handle this case."

"I just love to get my hands on criminals," she said afterwards. "I love to hunt them—love to play the game with them, and outwit them, when I can. But most of all I love to—just nab 'em!"

ALCOHOL TASTE NOT INHERITED

Taylor, of Pennsylvania, Says Degeneracy is the Cause.

FACTS SURPRISING

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Many surprising facts in regard to the effect of alcohol, physical and mental, principally among which was the statement that the taste for alcohol is not passed along from generation to generation, were given by Dr. Alonzo E. Taylor, professor of medicine at University of Pennsylvania, in the second of a series of free lectures in Houston hall.

According to the speaker transmission of alcoholic tastes is not proved or probable. The truth, he said, was that mental degeneration and defectiveness probably are the primary causes of alcoholism.

Alcohol, the speaker declared, was responsible for a great percentage of crime and of poverty. Even the occasional use of alcoholic liquors, he said, might result in organic injury. At the same time, he said, life insurance companies do not regard the occasional and moderate drinker an unsafe risk.

Among the striking statements in the lecture were:

"There were never so many abstainers as today, and among those who use alcohol in the ordinary and usual way moderation is certainly on the increase. The quantity of alcohol consumed by those in representative life is strikingly less than a generation ago. The consumption of alcohol in club life is distinctly on the decrease.

"One factor has undoubtedly been very potent in driving upward the per capita consumption of alcohol, namely, the use of alcoholic beverages by women. A generation ago few women touched alcoholic beverages at all; today the use of alcoholic beverages by women is so common that it provokes no comment and is to be seen everywhere in public places."

BRIDE PICKED IN CRADLE.

Romance of Forty-Five Years, Begun in Sweden, Culminates in Marriage.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 21.—Forty-five years ago, in Sweden, Swan Peterson visited the home of his new bride and declared that she was the prettiest baby he ever had seen. She was then Christina Haraldson. Peterson's mind never has changed, nor could he forget the pretty child after he had come to America. Later, when she came to this country, he began paying her his attentions, which resulted in their marriage a few days ago at the bride's home here.

THREATEN TO GO ON STRIKE

General Electric Employes at Schenectady Issue Ultimatum.

GEORGE NEWELL DIES IN ANDREWS

Was Native of Fort Wayne and Formerly Worked for Pennsylvania.

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Unless an adjustment of their grievances is made before tonight the 12,000 employes of the General Electric company will go on strike. Officials of 25 unions, embracing men and women in every department of the big plant, made this announcement early today.

The workers demand that two discharged employes, Frank Dunjy, president of the Electrical Trades Alliance, and Mabel Leslie, chairman of the girls' committee of the Electrical Workers, be reinstated.

HUSTLERS FOR WABASH HERE.

Meet at Commercial Club to Discuss Loading Schedule.

Nearly every freight agent at the junction points of the Wabash between Toledo and St. Louis and including those cities, and some of the men high in the freight department of the company met at the Commercial club in Fort Wayne today to discuss matters connected with their calling—getting business for the company. A prominent question of the discussions pertained to the loading schedule with a view of establishing uniform practices and rules over the entire system. The meeting was presided over by T. E. Bolte, of St. Louis, superintendent of transportation. Others taking part in the meeting were D. I. Forsyth, assistant superintendent of transportation, of St. Louis; Division Superintendent J. C. Sullivan, of Peru; Division Freight Agent W. A. Hopkins, of Toledo; Commercial Agent A. L. Gilbert, of Fort Wayne; Traveling Freight Agent H. C. Carnell, of Toledo; George Lahyer, of St. Louis, superintendent of weights, and the following freight agents: E. J. McDonald, St. Louis; J. A. Roedever, East St. Louis; P. H. Matimore, Decatur; C. J. Jenkins, Danville; R. B. Hamilton, Lafayette; H. A. Sweet, Peru; J. T. McPartland, Fort Wayne; J. Brown, Wabash; Walter Childers, Toledo; George Treece, warehouse foreman, Fort Wayne; Ware House Foreman S. V. Gresham, of Toledo, and Stenographer Maurice Schiber, of Fort Wayne.

DRAGGED WOMAN FROM TRACKS.

J. J. Starbuck Prevents Tragedy at Andrews.

Jumping from a cut of cars which was being backed into the Andrews yards from the east, Wabash Brakeman J. J. Starbuck rushed to the crossing and dragged Mrs. Clawson, 65 years old, a well known Andrews resident, out of their path. Mrs. Clawson when she stepped on a sidetrack was watching the approach of a train from the west and did not note that a train was coming from the opposite direction. So grateful was Mrs. Clawson that she rewarded her rescuer with $25 Wednesday. W. J. Fletcher was conductor on the train, a local. He is a distant relative of Mrs. Clawson.

At the time of the near-tragedy the crew of the local was switching some cars. The cut of cars on which Starbuck was standing at the time he noted Mrs. Clawson on the crossing but a short distance away, wholly unaware of her danger, was going at a good rate of speed.

Starbuck realized that if the woman's life was to be saved immediate action was necessary. He leaped from the car, risking his own life in doing so, and rushed to the crossing ahead of the cars and reached Mrs. Clawson just in time.

GEORGE NEWELL DEAD.

Former Fort Wayne Man Expires in Andrews.

Friends in the city are in receipt of news of the death of George Newell, which occurred Wednesday night at Andrews, Ind., where he is engaged in the lumber business. Mr. Newell leaves a widow and two sons. He was a native of Fort Wayne, his father being Engineer Newell, for many years employed on the Pennsylvania and residing on Douglas avenue. Another surviving relative is Mrs. Charles Cross, of New York, who was a sister. The funeral will be held at Andrews at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and will be attended by some of the friends of the family. Mr. Newell, during the latter part of his residence in Fort Wayne, was employed in a clerical capacity by the Pennsylvania.

DEAD MAN ON G. R. & I.

Local Crew Found Body With Both Legs Severed.

While southbound local freight train No. 76, on the G. R. & I. was pulling out of Kalamazoo at 6 o'clock this morning, Engineer W. E. Craven saw a pair of human legs lying in the middle of the track and a body at the side of the rail. He stopped the train and Conductor Walter Deeter and crew made an examination to find some means of identifying the dead man, but failed. They turned the remains over to the coroner, who at 11 o'clock had not succeeded in identifying the man. The accident occurred some hours before the body was found and it is believed that the victim was asleep on the tracks when run over. An effort is being made to discover what train killed him.

CONDITION NOT SERIOUS.

Martin Coleman Injured at Pennsy Freight House.

Martin Coleman, who was taken to the St. Joseph hospital last night is resting well and it is thought that he is not seriously injured. Mr. Coleman was hurt at the Pennsylvania freight house last evening when an empty oyster pail fell from the top of a pile on a truck and struck him on the top of the head. Dr. Benninghoff dressed the injury, a deep gash in the scalp. Mr. Coleman is an employe of the Adams Express company, is married and resides at 1339 Cass street.

FOUNDRY LABORER HURT.

Alex Cory, of 2111 Weiser Park avenue, employed at the Bass foundry, had his right foot burned slightly and bruised and sprained badly yesterday when a chunk of metal weighing thirty or forty pounds fell on the member. When the metal fell on his foot, Mr. Cory fell backwards and sustained some injury to one of his arms also. He was attended by the company's surgeon and then sent home.

ANOTHER VANDALIA WRECK.

Early this morning the Pennsylvania wreck crew and derrick was sent to a point a short distance east of LaOtto to pick up some derailed cars of a Vandalia freight train. The road was blocked a few hours, but it is understood that nobody was hurt and the damage was not very great. The wreck crew went to the scene by way of the G. R. & I. road.

NOT SERIOUSLY HURT.

Joseph Balsch, the man who had his mouth and throat burned by molten iron yesterday, is doing nicely at Hope hospital and will recover. The accident is one of the most peculiar on record. Balsch opened his mouth to give directions to an assistant when a pouring of metal was being made and some of it splashed out and went in his mouth.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

W. M. Dowling took employment at the Pennsylvania machine shop this morning.

Robert Schellhammer is in Kendallville today on business for the Bass company.

William Slater is in New York on business for the Bass Foundry and Machine works.

O. W. Lane, a boilermakers' helper, resigned a position at the Pennsylvania shops this morning.

Boilermaker John Seibold, of the Pennsylvania, is off duty on account of the illness of his wife.

Glenn D. Seip, F. X. Miller, F. G. Kilfoy and Harry Perrellam, Pennsylvania shopmen, are sick and off duty.

Mr. Koehner, of Columbus, Ohio, is here today inspecting 300 car wheels for the Hocking Valley company.

Miss Ella Kelleher, operator at the Pennsylvania telephone exchange, will go to Chicago tomorrow to visit friends a few days.

J. B. Brown, casting inspector for the Pennsylvania, resumed that duty this morning, after an absence of a week on account of the fatal accident to Mrs. Brown.

Assistant Master Mechanic E. E. Greist, of the Pennsylvania, returned home at noon today. He had been looking after some business matters at Somerset, Ky., for the company.

A. L. Lopshire, road foreman of engines of the G. R. & I., has gone to Tiffin, Ohio, to visit relatives and hunt a day or two. Mr. Lopshire is accompanied by his son, Raymond.

The work of rebuilding the Stony Island shops of the Nickel Plate, badly damaged by fire some time ago, has been completed. The walls of the old structure were used to support the roof of the rebuilt shop.

Charles H. Archer has returned from Indianapolis, where he attended the meetings of the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F. several days. This morning he resumed his duties at the Pennsylvania motive power office.

One of the attendants at the Masonic exercises in the city this week is Wilbur Mitten, of Lima, O., a former Fort Wayne resident and a well known railway man. While here Mr. Mitten was general foreman of the Lake Shore shops. He is now employed by the Lake Erie and Western.

The Nickel Plate railroad pay car visited Hammond. Joe Delge, a foreign section hand, missed it. He got to the station just as the train was pulling out and chased the train six miles into Illinois. There he got his pay check for $1.12. As he walked back happily he said: "Me got little baby tonight. Need dollar ten . . buy clothes."

Freight traffic has been picking up on the Wabash of late and additional freight trains are being operated on several divisions of that road. Yesterday freight engines Nos. 2087 and 2075 which had been stored at Fort Wayne during the last three months were taken out of whitelead and fitted up for service. They will be placed in service on the Detroit division of the road.

James H. Bolins, a few years ago a most familiar figure about the Pennsylvania and the Wabash depots, where he was employed as mail transfer clerk, will leave next week for Peoria, Ill., to spend two months with his married daughter. Mr. Bolins will then go to Kansas to dispose of a section of land he has owned ever since a few years after the war.

Farmer William G. Page spent the night in the city, the guest of relatives. Before taking up farm work Mr. Page spent many years in the Pennsylvania shops, where he learned the machinist's trade. He called there to see the "boys" yesterday. Mr. Page was unfortunate this fall in the loss of every hog he was preparing for the market. Cholera broke out in the herd and all died or were killed and the carcasses buried. He figures his loss at upwards of $300.

Expert in Child-Raising Tells How to Rear Better, Stronger Children.

Mrs. Prudence Brown (upper), who has invented a "back to the soil" method for raising children. Virginia Brown (lower), her 6-year-old granddaughter, who is a sturdy example, proving the truth of her teachings.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 20.—"Back to the soil," is the better babies' answer of Prudence Brown, who initiated and taught the first public kindergarten in California.

By the "soil," Mrs. Brown means a sand pile in the back yard.

"A sympathetic study of child nature will prove to any one that what they need is not starched frocks and immaculate finger nails, but plenty of sand, clay, water and sunshine.

Mrs. Brown bases her knowledge on twenty-five years' teaching and experience in the role of mother and grandmother.

"I would as soon deprive a child of food as of contact with the earth. Mothers should put a sandbox in the apartment or flat if they have no back yard.

"I am an advocate of natural education. The part of the teacher is merely to make a response to the child and to provide means of expression. The child's only avenue of expression is in plastic material such as sand, clay and paper and if the child is to develop properly, physically, morally and mentally, these things should be within easy reach.

"The spirit of Montessori and Froebel should be in every home and school room. Child gardening, which should be the most joyful work in the world, has become burdensome drudgery, with overworked and over-weary teachers the result."

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of the National Kindergarten college in Chicago, from which she received the degree of master of education. She was left a widow with two small children and was milking cows and growing fruit on a Southern California ranch when she became interested in kindergarten methods.

Her 4-year-old granddaughter, Virginia Brown, is a sturdy example of her teachings. She is as large as a child of 6 and just as far advanced.

Virgina has a play room in Mrs. Brown's flat planned by Mrs. Brown. Its features are a sand pile with modeling and drawing board and a case for moulds, blocks and tools.

"I do not believe in punishment of any kind," says Mrs. Brown. "Children need nurture, not punishment, whether at home or in school.

"In dealing with children we must have first the right attitude of mind—the appreciation of the value of child life to civilization.

"We must never forget that they are citizens in the most important stage of development and have thir rights to free, self-active expression. We must provide plastic conservative materials and environment in which simplicity, harmony, order and neatness predominate."

To Make Christmas Shopping An Unalloyed Pleasure

There's a real joy in making others happy at Christmas time. The gift may be very small, but it should be carefully chosen. The value is chiefly in the thought that goes with it.

You can't give sufficient thought to gifts if you delay their buying to that inevitable time when the store is crowded.

If you begin TOMORROW, not only will you have more comfort and pleasure, but quite likely to spend less money than when buying under pressure of limited time.

Many of the gift things here now are imported or exclusive and will be sold out before the "rush" days—that suggests another advantage of early shopping.

(By Tom S. Andrews.)

If anyone desires to "start something" let him approach a group of fight fans and demand the name of the middleweight champion.

The same result may be obtained at the annual convention of the knights of the road by proposing that all hands try day labor for a change.

You get an argument in either case, it depending upon yourself whether it is verbal or physical.

There are many who will fight to prove their favorite is middleweight champion, and to any hobo the word "work" means fight.

As a matter of fact, ever since Stanley Ketchell was killed we have not had a real middleweight champion; that is, a man recognized by press and public as the king pin.

There hasn't been such a mix-up since 1887, when "The Nonpareil" won the American title by beating George La Blanche in thirteen rounds and Johnny Reagan in a t errific forty-five round mill. The weight limit was then about 154 or 156 pounds. When Fitzsimmons defeated

JIM CLABBY.
JACK DILLON.
EDDIE M'GOORTY AND FRANK KLAUS.

Dempsey he scaled 151, but he boosted the limit to 158, where it has remained.

Ketchell always respected Bill Papke, who had beaten him, and naturally when Ketchell was killed Papke succeeded him as champion.

Then Papke was beaten in Australia by Johnny Thompson and later by others. It became evident Papke couldn't make 158 ringside, so several laid claim to the title, among them being Eddie McGoorty, Jack Dillon, Leo Houck, Harry Lewis, Mike Gibbons, Jim Clabby, George Carpentier, Dave Smith, Frank Mantell, Jeff Smith, George Chip and Gus Christie.

This squad has now been thinned out. Carpentier outgrew the class. It is doubtful if Dillon or Klaus can make 158 ringside.

Of the real ones who can make the weight there are Clabby, Gibbons, Smith, Houck, McGoorty and Chip. McGoorty and Clabby are the class of the squad, with Chip and Jeff Smith labeled dangerous.

We need a series of bouts between real middleweights, men able to make the weight, and let the four-flushers get into the class where they belong. There would be few middleweights if they had to make the weight.

It is a shame the way the class has been permitted to flounder about. If the fighters cannot recognize one of their number as champion, the big promoters ought to pick the best pair and let them fight it out, the winner to be recognized as champion.

Take Clabby, McGoorty, Dillon, Klaus and Chip, select the men who can make the weight to create a champion. It's dollars to peanuts all five cannot make 158 ringside.

HANDLED HALF A MILLION DOLLARS

This is What Tom Jones Did Without Scratch of Pen from Wolgast.

NO WRITTEN CONTRACT

Tom Jones, who is here as manager of Jess Willard, and who is preparing his man for a meeting Monday night at Princess rink with Jack Reed, knows of $450,000 in cash that he has handled in five years for Ad Wolgast, and he stated yesterday that there has never been a written agreement between them and that he has transacted all the business of the former lightweight champion without as much as the scratch of a pen between them. At least half a million dollars has passed through his hands in his capacity as business manager.

Another distinction that Jones claims is that he and Wolgast sustained the relation of manager and fighter for a longer period than it has ever been sustained between two men in the history of the ring, and he states that his proteje won more money with his padded gloves than any other man who was ever in the profession.

"Why, Wolgast don't know anything about his business," said Jones. "I just had a letter from him asking about the sale of some property in North Dakota and he doesn't know right now whether he owns it or not."

Jones showed the letter and a telegram from a prospective purchaser as evidence that he is still in charge of Wolgast's business, and the letter set at naught all rumors of friction between the two. In the communication Wolgast expressed regret that Jones did not have "the odds" in his little mixup with Charlie Cutler at Chicago last week.

"The odds" in ring parlance is sometimes called "a gat," frequently referred to as a gun, and is in reality a revolver. Jones had his locked in his grip at the time he stopped Cutler's punch and could not come back with it.

"Wolgast got $96,000 in one year from Jimmy Coffroth," said Jones in speaking of his managerial experience, "and when I say he earned more money in the ring than any other prize fighter I know what I'm talking about. In all the time that Wolgast held the championship in his division he played only twenty-one weeks in theatricals. He got $1,000 a week for some weeks and $1,250 a week for the remainder of the time, making in all $24,500 he obtained from theatrical managers."

Jones put Willard and Joe Cox to work today in the rooms of the Fort Wayne Motorcycle club, and the two did some sparring and will do more from day to day until Monday, when he thinks Willard will be right for his go with Reed.

In the meantime Jones is looking up Reed and he finds that he has a match with a man that cannot be held too cheaply. He has no fear that his man will lose, but his experience with Jack Rodel at Milwaukee demonstrated that he must keep his big boxer keyed up and going right all the time.

It is impossible to get a man big enough to work properly with Willard on account of his enormous size, but Cox goes in and roughs it to the best of his ability and is strong enough and big enough to get his opponent in condition.

Plenty of big gloves will be on hand for the match at Princess rink Monday night. The first time Willard appeared here none big enough to fit his massive hands could be found. Manager George Biemer didn't know this until he got to the ringside, and he had to charter a taxicab and wake or dig up the proprietor of every sporting goods house in town before he finally found what he wanted.

Willard brought along a pair when he came from Chicago, and Al Gerardot also procured a pair at the request of the Summit City Athletic club and this insures there will be no delays.

Hal Steward and Young Holzhauer are both working here for their part in the boxing card.

NO WORLD TOURS FOR MANY YEARS

Quarter of Century Since Spalding Took His Men on Trip.

HE HAD A CLASSY LOT

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Just twenty-five years ago a gathering of baseball athletes met in Chicago at the invitation of A. G. Spalding to accompany him on a tour to Australia and around the world. On the 20th day of October, 1888, after playing a farewell game here before starting on their farewell trip of 28,000 miles, two dozen sturdy and well dressed ball players of national fame, under the leadership of Capt. Adrian C. Anson, began a tour which brought much glory and fame to all the players, Mr. Spalding and the United States in general.

A more handsome and well dressed squad of men never boarded a Pullman sleeper. John K. Tener, a giant athlete; Captain Anson, another giant and mighty slugger; Long John Healy, a pitcher of great renown a way back in the 80's; big Ed Williamson with his 230 pounds of beef and muscle; Mark Baldwin, one of the great hurlers of the day. Then Ed Crane, whom big Jeff Tesreau is the exact counterpart of in build and style.

John M. Ward was the classiest of all shortstops when inside baseball was considered. The batteries were not the best the game could produce at that period. Clarkson, Keefe and Bobby Carruthers could not be induced to make the trip. Bennett, Buck Ewing and the noted Mike Kelly, the most famous backstops the game ever had, failed to respond to invitations to accompany the tourists.

But what did the people of foreign lands know about the great ones of the national game of the United States? Long Jack Healy, with his bean pole build; Crane, with his gigantic mold and muscle; John K. Tener with his giant form and distinguished appearance, and Baldwin, the fashion plate, did more to impress the natives of Honolulu, Egypt, Ceylon, the bushmen of Australia and the Irishmen of Ireland than all the skillful, but ordinary appearing, ball players the game had.

Here is the line-up:

JUNIORS PLAY AT PIONEER.

Members of the Turner Junior basket ball team are carded to play against the high school club at Pioneer, O., tonight. The club will not have a home game until Dec. 4, when it will meet the Zanesville, Ind., team.

"I OBJECT BEING CLASSED WITH FAT LADY IN A CIRCUS.

Christy Mathewson, famous pitcher with the Giants, and his wife and 7-year-old son, Christopher Jr. When asked if he would make a ball player of the boy, "Big Six" said: "Not unless I think he will make a top-notcher."

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—Christy Mathewson, the famous "Big Six" of baseball, had the time of his life touring the west to keep from being placed in the same class as a nine-legged calf or the fat lady in a sideshow. For that and other reasons he decided to leave McGraw's world-four stars and try to live, eat and act like an ordinary human, if the profesional advertisers will give him a chance.

"I am not strong for being paraded before the fans so they can get a look at me. A Los Angeles department store pulled one while we were on our way to the coast. They wired me asking if I would spend two hours a day in their sporting goods department just shaking hands with their customers. Can you beat it? They offered me $100 an hour, at that. You would think that I was some sort of freak, like the fat lady in a circus. I always want to satisfy the fans, but sometimes they ask a little too much."

The famous heaver added a spitball to his category of curves, shoots and benders.

"This White Sox bunch was the hardest lot of batters I ever went up against and nearly everything looks alive to them. I tried the spitter to see if I could prevent them from batting me all over the lot. Weaver, their leadoff man, and Sam Crawford hit over .400 from the time we started. I figured that the more variety I gave them the better off I would be."

Matty has never pitched a Sunday game of ball in his fourteen years on the diamond.

"Of course I have a little religion," he said, "but it is chiefly because I want Sunday as a day of rest that I refuse to work.

"Will I ever work in the minor leagues? Well, that is pretty hard to say. Most players have to come to that sooner or later. It may be that I will be forced to pitch in the minors some day."

Cotton formed almost $11,000,000 of Egypt's exports to Germany last year.

PLAYERS DO NOT REALIZE CHANCE

Each One is Making Good Money and Base Ball Made Them.

GET GOOD SALARIES

New York, Nov. 21.—Several fans entitled to membership in the winter league by virtue of their failure to forget baseball, were sitting in the lobby of a Broadway hotel the other day. "I can't understand," said one between puffs, "why ball players are always kicking. The truth is they dont' know how lucky they are." These were words of wisdom indeed. We'll admit that there are cases where some players have every reason to become disgruntled. But they are in the minority. The sum and solid substance of the whole matter is the majority don't realize how well off they are. The chronic kickers also forget that it is baseball that has made them, and that if it hadn't been for the national game they would still be struggling in obscurity to earn commonplace livelihoods.

There has been a lot of talk from time to time that the ball player is the most downtrodden of the human race. Slavery has been linked with his name. But there is no such word known in baseball today. While there are trying moments in a ball player's career, on the other hand the opportunities to get ahead offset these. It's up to the man alone to succeed, and the history of the game shows a number of cases where men began with practically nothing who afterward ascended the ladder of success. A volume could be written on this point alone.

Years ago ball players didn't have the same opportunity to make money that they do now. They didn't get the salaries. Few ever saved their money, and as a rule after they quit the game they were forced to drop in obscurity. But it's different today. The wise men in baseball are awake. And when we speak of wise men in baseball this covers wide territory, for there are many. Enlightened by the lesson of those before them, the present generation is putting by the money that seemingly comes in easy to them for a rainy day.

There are failures in baseball as well as success. Out on the Pacific coast there is a former star who is working as a day laborer for a dollar a day. Now and then he picks up a few stray dollars tipping off managers to embryo stars. This man's name is engraved in baseball's history as one of the greatest pitchers the game has ever known. Yet it doesn't take the public long to forget the once great New York pitcher. A truly wonderful pitcher.

A trailer on the Toledo and Chicago interurban line left the rails six miles north of the city last night and was so badly wrecked that the crew left it in the ditch and returned to Fort Wayne on the regular car.

LYNCH WAITS ON THE CLUB HEADS

Will Not Discuss Appointment of Tener Until He Hears.

MAY BE A MISTAKE

New York, Nov. 21.—President Thomas J. Lynch, of the National league, would not comment today upon the selection of Governor John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania, for his position. "I have nothing official of Mr. Tener's selection," said Mr. Lynch, "and do not care to talk much about it at this time. All that I know is what I have seen in the newspapers. My conduct of the affairs of the league for the last four years could not have been so bad when they had to get one of the most prominent men in the country to run against me." Mr. Lynch said that he might have something to say about the matter after he had heard definitely from the club owners.

The National league magnates who are congratulating themselves on the hiring of Governor John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania, to head their organization for the next four years, may awaken shortly and discover that the firing of Toni Lynch to make room for Tener will act as a boomerang.

The one thing the outlaw Federal league needed to give strength and weight to the organization was a man of Lynch's caliber and reputation. Lynch is a capable baseball man, perhaps as well schooled in baseball lore as any man in America today. And what he knows of the inner workings of the organized baseball crowd would be of invaluable aid to the outlaws.

Lynch has not been signed up by the Federals as yet, but it looks just now as if he'll snap at the bait they are bobbing in his direction—a three-year contract at $8,000 a year, the same salary he was paid by the National league.

Some there are who argue that Lynch won't accept the offer of the Federals for two reasons: One, because of sentiment for the old National league crowd, and the other that he has been in organized baseball so long that he would not care to become an outlaw. The argument that Lynch would rather be a "regular" without salary than an outlaw with an income of $8,000 a year, is hardly reasonable.

John Kinley Tener, who is named to succeed Lynch, was born in Tyrone, Ireland, in 1863. He came to this country when a boy and settled in Pittsburg, where he was educated in the public schools. His first employment was as a clerk. His health soon broke down and upon the advice of physicians he sought outdoor employment. While working as a clerk he had earned $5 a game pitching for local teams on Saturday afternoons and had gained considerable fame as a player.

In 1885 Tener secured his first professional engagement as first baseman of the Pittsburg club. At that time he stood

Forwards beginning a dribbling rush. Note how the player beside the forward who has just kicked, is, with outstretched arms, attempting to block the rush. The expert dribbler carries the ball, by short kicks, down the field, or passes with his feet to his teammates if he is blocked. The short kick is best in these dribbling rushes, as a longer boot would send the ball into the hands of a rival back, who would probably boot it safely to touch, that is, outside the side lines, where the ball becomes dead and is put into play again either by a "line-in" or a "scrum."

For the "line-in" a player of the side opposite to that which kicked the ball out, standing outside the side lines, throws the ball straight in at the point where it was kicked out.

In case of a bad "line-in," the referee orders a "scrum." The ball is tossed in by the halfback and the players have to work it out of the scrum with their feet.

Forwards leaping for the ball from a "line-in." Note how the rival forwards "mark" their opposition man. The forward who secures the ball either drops it to his feet and dribbles, or attempts to pass it back to his halfback, who sends it to his backs.

6 feet 3 inches and weighed 200 pounds. He was released before the season was half over and then joined the Baltimore club. At his own request he was released to the Haverhill (Mass.) club, where he played until the close of the season. He again secured a position with a business house in Pittsburg, but continued to play baseball at every opportunity.

Captain Anson offered Tener a position as pitcher on the Chicago White Stockings after having chanced to stroll into a small park where Tener was twirling. After playing on the Chicago team for about three years Tener went with Anson's teams on the tour around the world in 1888-89. Tener gave up baseball to go into business at Charleroi, Pa.

From the time he quit baseball nearly a quarter of a century ago until last winter, Tener dropped out of the national game and devoted his attention to business and politics. His re-entry was made when he helped the late William H. Locke to purchase the Philadelphia National league club from Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati.

TROLLEY WIRE BREAKS.

Fifty Workmen at Wabash Elevation Scramble for Lives.

Fifty workmen employed on the concrete gang of the Moellering Construction company at the Wabash elevation on Broadway, participated in a wild scramble for places of safety at 8 o'clock this morning when a trolley wire fell to the ground in the very midst of the frightened laborers. The wire was being stretched beneath the tracks so that traffic of cars could be resumed through on Broadway.

Abraham Bowman, in charge of the concrete mixer sustained the most severe shock from the live wire, and several others nearby were slightly burned, but all escaped serious injury and returned to work a short time later.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat also take glass of Salts before eating breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

IT HAS BECOME SERIOUS PROBLEM

River Improvement Will Be Discussed from Many Angles.

AT COMING CONGRESS

Washington, Nov. 21.According to reports of the department of agriculture, the value of farm products for the present year will run between nine and ten billion dollars. As the carriage of these foodstuffs to market and the return of the manufactured products for which they will be exchanged will tax the ability of the railroads to the limit, causing car shortage, terminal congestion and vexatious delays, the improvement of the rivers of the continental United States becomes at once one of the most serious problems with which the government has to deal.

Just what should be done toward a solution of this fundamental economic problem will be one of the things which the tenth annual convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which meets in this city December 3, 4 and 5 next, will endeavor to show.

The President's Position.

Probably the one utterance that will be awaited with the liveliest possible interest is the one which will show the position that President Woodrow Wilson will take regarding a liberal policy of river and harbor development. As governor of New Jersey the president early became interested in the project for a ship canal across the state connecting the Delaware river with Raritan bay or Newark Bay, but his position on the improvement of the internal waters of the country is yet to be defined. It may also be expected that Secretary of War Garrison will outline the position of the administration on the government of the Panama canal zone and free tolls for coastwise commerce, in the event the president does not touch upon these questions in his annual message to congress, which will be delivered on the day previous to the meeting of the waterways convention.

Foreign governments will be represented on the program by his excellency D. da Gama, ambassador from Brazil, and Hon. John D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries, Ottawa, Canada.

Hon. Rome G. Brown, a former president of the Minnesota Bar association and chairman of the conservation committee of the American Bar association, will speak on "Legislative Obstacles to the Improvement of Navigable Rivers," a subject of wide interest in view of recent decisions of the supreme court.

Reception to Marshalls.

For the first time in the history of the congress a reception will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 3, in honor of the vice president and Mrs. Marshall, and the speaker of the house of representatives and Mrs. Clark. After the reception, which will not extend over an hour, Mrs. Sarah Willard Strout, of Portland, Me., president of the Woman's National Rivers and Harbors Congress, will take charge of the meeting and deliver an address on "Developed Waterways and Their Relation to the Homemaker." Miss Mira L. Dock, of Fayetteville, Pa., vice chairman of the conservation department, General Federation of Women's Clubs, will speak on "The Interest of Club Women in Waterway Development," the ladies' night closing with an illustrated lecture, "Some Wondrous Waterways," by Mrs. Agnes Greene Foster, of Chicago, one of the best known literary women of the middle west.

Governor Martin H. Glynn, of New York, who has shown a most enthusiastic interest not only in the barge canal now building in his state, but in port conditions at New York and Buffalo, will speak on "Waterway Development in the Empire State," while R. A. C. Smith, commissioner of docks and ferries, New York city, will speak on "The Port of New York," and another New Yorker, Danforth E. Ainsworth, of Albany, will speak on "The New York Barge Canal."

The Terminal Problem.

Municipally-owned terminals will be discussed by W. B. Thompson, commissioner of public utilities, New Orleans, and Congressman J. R. Knowland, of California, and "The Waterways of the Pacific Northwest" will be described by Senator Wesley L. Jones, of Washington state.

Thursday afternoon's session will be devoted to addresses from James E. Smith, of St. Louis; Representative B. G. Humphreys, of Mississippi; Julius H. Barnes, of Duluth, Minn., chairman of the committee on inland waterways, chamber of commerce of the United States; E. M. Clendening, general secretary of the Commercial club of Kansas City, the session closing with an illustrated lecture from Samuel Hill, president of the American Road Congress, Portland, Ore.

A HINT TO YOUNG MOTHERS.

"When my children show the slightest symptoms of being croupy I give them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and when I have a cough or cold on the lungs I take it for a few days and am soon rid of the cold," writes Mrs. Clay Fry, Ferguson Sta., Mo. The first symptom of croup is hoarseness, give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains no narcotic. REMEDY AS BAD AS THE DISEASE.

"On the seventh of February I contracted a severe cold followed by a cough and final loss of voice. I tried many remedies none of which did me any good. I then went to my family doctor and he swabbed my throat five or six times with some abominable stuff. I think it was beneficial but the remedy was as bad as the disease. At last the thought struck me—why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and this morning my voice is fairly good and is gradually growing better," writes H. C. Clay, publisher of The Reporter, Rapid City, Manitoba. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

WOMAN SCIENTISTS TRYING TO SOLVE MOST BAFFLING RIDDLE OF MEDICINE.

DR. EDITH J. CLAYPOOL AT WORK WITH HER MICROSCOPE.

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 21.—A woman, Dr. Edith J. Claypool, of the University of California, is trying to solve the most baffling riddle of medical science—sterptothricosis.

This disease, so obscurely understood, resembles tuberculosis and is usually confused with that scourge by the majority of doctors.

Only the most skillful can detect sterptothricosis, and then only when the disease has reached a most advanced and malignant stage.

There exists no simple and sure way of isolating the sterotothrix, the organism which causes the mysterious and deadly disease. Dr. Claypool is trying to find a way. Through cultures and with her microscope she is endeavoring to trace the life of this germ—what chemical action it sets up in the blood and the means of proving its presence.

"I hope," she said, "to simply establish satisfactory clinical tests that will make the diagnosis of this disease easy. I am seeking a test that will work as the Wasserman blood test does for other diseases. If I am successful it will solve the riddle of this dreaded malady. There is nothing unusual about the work at all.

EMORY O. POOLE DIES AT AVILLA

Was in Wabash Service Here for More Than Fifty Years.

THE OTHER DEATHS

Emory O. Poole, aged eighty-three years, the father of Frank H. Poole, cashier at the Hamilton National bank, died at 5 o'clock this morning at Avilla, where he had resided for the last two years. Death was due to infirmities of age. Mr. Poole had been in poor health for the last four years.

Mr. Poole was born in New York state in 1831 and came to Fort Wayne in 1850. For more than fifty years he was in the service of the Wabash railway company here and for years was one of its best known engineers. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and served as chief of the division for several years. He was a member of the Plymouth Congregational church and for a time served as deacon in the congregation. Mrs. Poole died twenty-four years ago and he is survived by his one son in this city.

The remains will arrive in Fort Wayne this evening. Funeral services will be held privately from the residence of Frank H. Poole, at a time to be selected later.

Friends are asked to kindly omit flowers.

JUDT.

Ida M. Judt, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Judt, of 1405 Lillie street, died at 5 o'clock this morning at the age of four weeks. Death was due to exhaustion. The father is a car inspector in the east yards of the Pennsylvania company. Surviving besides the parents are three brothers and three sisters—Elizabeth, Walter, Mildred, Risina, Robert and Edward Judt.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Interment at Lindenwood.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Muhler.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary A. Muhler will be held Monday at 8:30 o'clock from the residence and at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral. Interment at the Catholic cemetery will be private.

ARMY CONTINUES TYPHOID VACCINE

No Unfavorable Results Experienced in This Country.

REPORT SUBMITTED

New York, Nov. 21.—Announcement has been made that the inoculation of enlisted men in the United States army with typhoid vaccine would continue, in spite of the fact that recent reports from the armies of France and England showed that men so inoculated were more susceptible to tuberculosis than those who have not been inoculated.

This report from abroad aroused the war department officials in Washington and an investigation, based on official records from army posts, was begun. This has convinced the United States authorities that whatever the experience with the vaccine has been in France and England, it has proved most efficacious in this country.

Col. L. M. Maus, chief of the medical corps of the department of the east, stationed at Governor's Island, said:

"The inoculation of enlisted men in the United States army with the typhoid fever vaccine will continue to be compulsory, because it has been shown to be of great benefit to the health of the army.

"The inoculation of enlisted men began in 1909, when it was voluntary. That year 1,800 men took the vaccine, and it worked to such advantage that the following year, 1910, there were 10,000 volunteers for the treatment.

"In 1911 we had the manoeuvers at San Antonia, and that year it was compulsory for the enlisted men to be inoculated. We then gave the inoculations to 20,000 men.

"Investigations of the reports that the inoculation of vaccine caused an increase in tuberculosis showed that there had been a decrease in tuberculosis in the United States army since the inoculation of typhoid fever vaccine began. The records of the army in the report made in 1912 of the conditions during the previous year showed a marked falling off in tuberculosis.

"The army officers are so thoroughly convinced that the typhoid vaccine has worked to an advantage in every way that we now are vaccinating the women and children in army posts. The army rules provide that all men under 54 shall be vaccinated, and all of them are."

MISS BURNS PAYS FINE.

Washington's First Militant Suffragette Is Admiration of Sisters.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Miss Lucy Burns, the capital's first militant suffragette, paid a fine of $1 in police court today for chalking the white house sidewalks with "Votes for women." The judge proposed to release Miss Burns on her personal bond note to repeat the offense, which is a violation of a city ordinance. "I want this thing settled and over with," said Miss Burns, so the court made it a dollar and she left, the center of admiration of her sisters.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

Ned Johns Charged With Cleaning Up Drinking Companion.

Ned Johns, a more or less notorious police character, was arested by Detective Sergeant Pappert today on a charge of robbery. He is said to have taken Bill Stevens, alias "Joe Gans," down near the river on Harrison street and cleaned him of $12. Johns and Stevens had been drinking together and at the time Johns had no money. Today when arrested he had over $7.

Detective Pappert is working on the robbery of a bunk car used by the signal gang on the Wabash railroad. The car stood on a switch a short distance east of Hanna street when it was broken into. A suit of clothes, a miscellaneous lot of clothing, a razor, some tools and $5 in cash were taken.

READY FOR FIGHT ON TUBERCULOSIS

Indiana Hopes to Make Record in Sale of Xmas Seals

SAYS W. D. THURBER

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—"Anti-tuberculosis societies in all parts of Indiana are now laying plans for the annual money-raising campaign through the sale of Red Cross Christmas stamps," says Walter D. Thurber, sales director for Indiana. "Seventy-five per cent. of this fund will remain in local communities for the 'home' work; 15 per cent. is to be sent to the state association, and thus enable it to continue a state-wide campaign of education; 10 per cent. will be sent to the American National Red Cross.

"The mighty power of the modest little Red Cross Christmas seal in the Indiana warfare against the white plague is going to prove itself this year as never before. After many years of educational work among the public by health authorities and organizations and by the human forces which have been pushing the sale of the Red Cross seals, the people of Indiana now fully realize that tuberculosis is a deadly foe and that it can be successfully combated. It has further been realized that societies for the study of the disease and for the founding of hospitals and fresh air camps where patients can be treated are making inroads on the ravages of the plague, the official figures of the Indiana state board of health showing an annual reduction in the number of fatalities from the disease.

The Red Cross seal has been a forceful factor in not only awakening the interest of the people on the subject of tuberculosis, but through the sale of the seals at Christmas time for the last five years a goodly fund has been raised and wisely expended in fighting the plague. The first seals came into Indiana in 1908, and in the cities where they were first available the public eagerly took them up as a holiday novelty. Seals to the amount of $4,500 were sold that year. In 1909 the Indiana sales reached $6,000 and in 1910 went to about $7,800. The public demand largely increased in 1911, when $12,444 was realized from the seals, and last year the amount increased to $12,838. With the public the seal is more than a novelty, and it is now as essential to a Christmas parcel, to letters and postcards as a United States stamp, and it is expected that the sales in Indiana for this year will amount to $40,000 or $50,000.

4,000 Deaths in 1913.

Based on official records of the past, as compiled by the state board of health, 4,000 men women and children will lose their lives in Indiana from tuberculosis in 1913. That this is a needless sacrifice of human life is forcefully being brought out by the health authorities and by county societies which are studying methods of suppressing the plague. It has been proved time and again that the disease not only can be hindered in its progress, but in incipient cases the victims can be cured. Living in fresh air and eating wholesome food are two important factors in driving out the disease, while medical science is helping materially in making these factors help-materially in making these factors help-

Money has been and still is needed to carry on the work of educating the public on how to combat the evil, to provde hospitals and fresh air camps and medical attention for the patients. One of the most potent mediums for raising funds in Indiana is the Red Cross Christmas seals, from which in the last five years about $35,000 has been realized in Indiana. This money has gone into the cause in the form of literature, in helping to establish hospitals and in many individual cases the Christmas seals money has been directly used to pay for the curing of men and women who had incipient tuberculosis.

The public has found a score of uses for the Christmas seals. They are used on letters, parcels and all forms of mail matter; on packages sent out from stores on bank checks and in many other ways. The seals sell at one cent each and every one purchased by the public means a bullet fired in the warfare against the white plague.

PRAYERS HEARD, HE WALKS.

Invalid Astounds Congregation by Appearing as Well Man.

Centralia, Ill., Nov. 21.—A case of divine healing is attracting a great deal of interest here.

Revival meetings have been in progress in the M. E. church, South. Charles Tate, who has been an invalid for the past four years, and during that time unable to walk, was carried to the evening services in his chair. He asked for the prayers of the congregation that he might be restored to health and strength.

Before morning the prayers of the congregation were evidently answered, for long before the morning dawn Mr. Tate was able to walk, according to his friends.

When Mr. Tate appeared at the services next evening and walked down the aisle, the congregation was very much surprised and elated.

The pastor, Rev. A. M. Stickney, was so amazed that he did but little preaching, and during the evening fervent prayers were offered and six persons converted.

AGED KIL-SO-QUAH AGAIN ILL.

Roanoke, Ind., Nov. 21.—Kil-So-Quah, the 103-year-old Indian princess, residing near Roanoke, is confined to her home, suffering from a serious attack of stomach ailment. The condition of the noted Indian woman is critical, fears being entertained for her recovery.

During the last several months Kil-So-Quah has enjoyed unusual health, despite the many years that have been spent on the earthly planet. Recently the descendant of North American natives was afflicted with a sudden illness, diagnosed as acute indigestion. The usual ailment of Kil-So-Quah is rheumatism, but the late attack seems more serious.

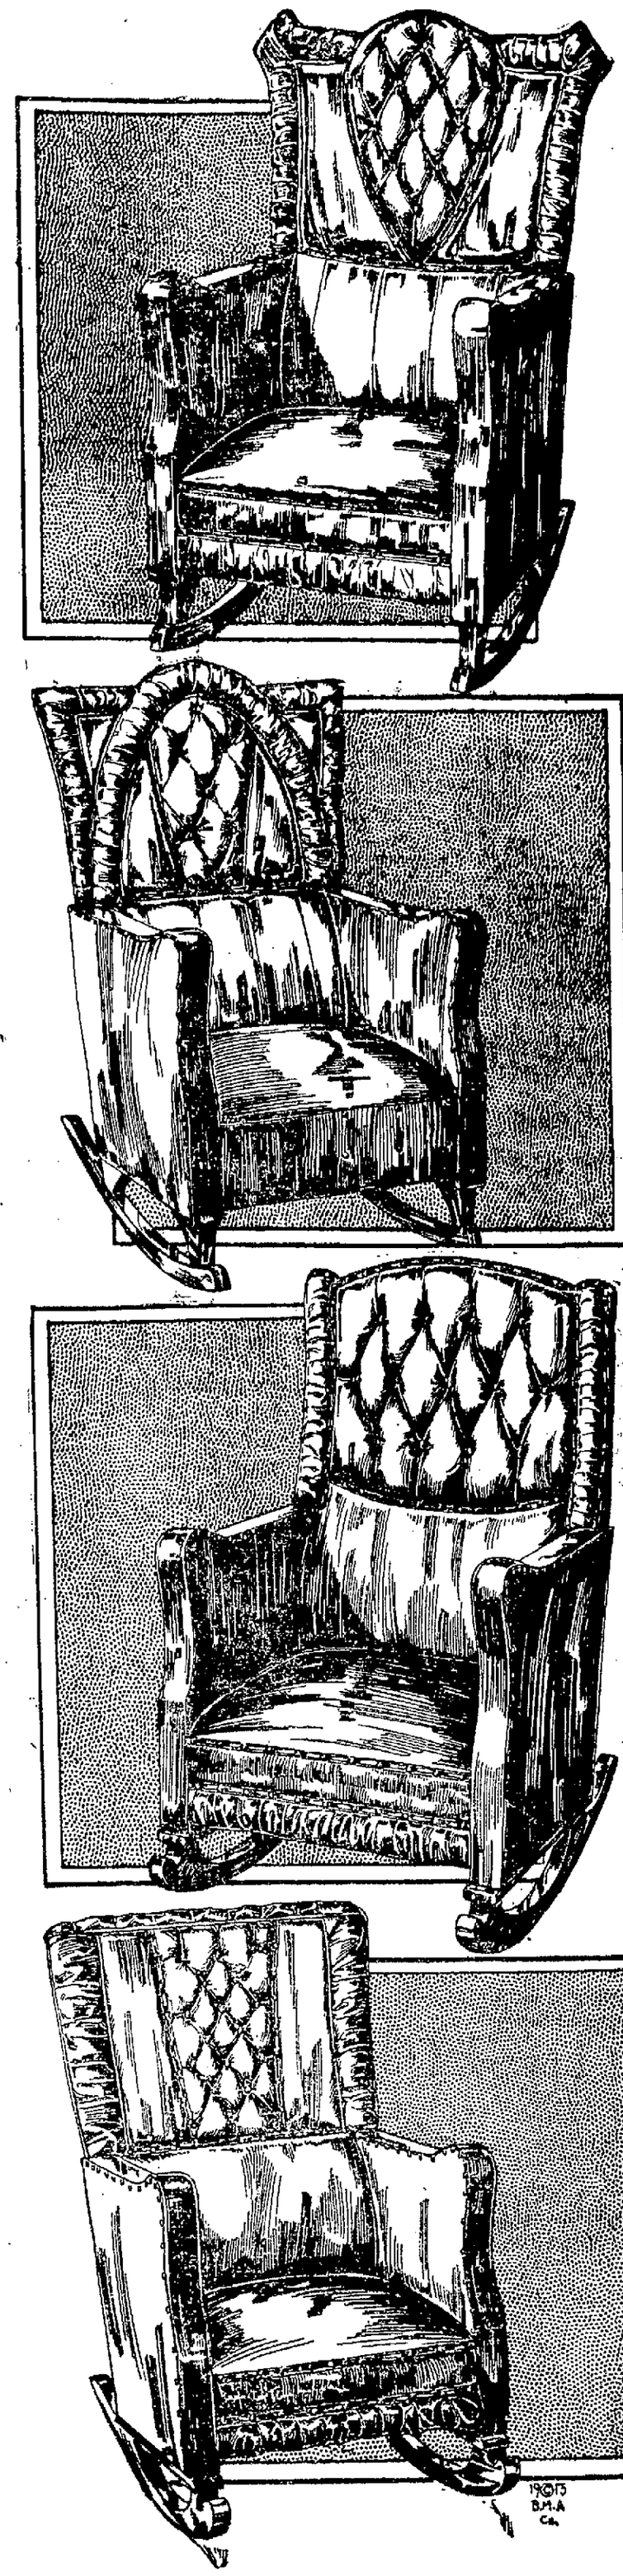
Balkan Leather Rockers

Exactly as Pictured

$10.50

Terms $1.00 Cash, $2.00 Monthly



New Selling Records Will Be Established Tomorrow

It would take the most doubting pessimist to predict anything else after looking at these rockers, noting the price and reading the description of them below. All former selling records should be wiped out and a record "hung up" that will set a mark to aim at for a long time to come.

Co-operative Quantity Buying is Responsible for This Offer

Purchasing these rockers in the ordinary way and selling them for $10.50 would be entirely out of the question. It was only by "pooling our interests" with our associates in other cities and placing one order that kept one factory busy for three months during a dull period that enables us to make this offer.

Every Rocker Worth not less than $15.00

We know of no more foolish waste of money than to advertise your unreliability by false statements, and if we could not prove the above statement to be an actual fact, we certainly would never risk our reputation making this claim. We can prove it, however, if you demand it. Your own good judgment, though, will convince you that it is a fact once you have seen these rockers.

They are in the Newest Balkan Design

Furniture designers have been trying for a long time to create a new design in upholstered rockers that would combine practicability, comfort and beauty, and the designer has achieved all three essentials in these new Balkan rockers that will soon be seen in every home. And this is your opportunity to have them seen in your home first.

Upholstered in brown imitation leather

They are big roomy rockers and upholstered over all with a fine grade of imitation leather fabric that has been subjected to severe tests and not only looks like leather but is claimed by the maker to wear about three-quarters as long as the genuine. The upholsterers who work on these rockers are men usually employed on much higher-priced furniture.

The Illustration

In the group several styes are shown, but every one is an exact reproduction drawn from a photographic blue print. There has been no attempt at exaggeration — a statement that applies to all of our illustrations. Misrepresentation in picture is as bad as in type.

4½ months in which to pay for it

Our object in making the low terms of $1.00 cash and $2.00 monthly is two-fold. First, of course, is that of convenience. We want our credit customers to be able to take advantage of our special offerings as well as those who have the ability to pay cash. Our second reason is that know of no better way of guaranteeing the quality of an article than by giving the customer an extended length of time in which to pay for it. If these rockers were not all that we represented them to be, we could never afford to sell them on this basis.

To Sum Up

These rockers, on account of their unusual value, are bound to go quickly. So quickly that those who put off too long may be unable to profit by this offer. And as the thought of what might have been is not at all pleasant, we caution you to make your selection as early as possible to avoid disappointment.

POTATO GROWING IS LURE.

Idaho Man's Success to Lead to Planting of 15,000 Acres.

Caldwell, Idaho, Nov. 19.—As a result of the phenomenal success of J. B. Frye, a Deer Plat settler under the Payette Boise project, in raising potatoes, there will probably be some 15,000 acres set out to tubers in this vicinity next season.

Mr. Frye this year made $4,500 from a fifteen-acre patch, gathering 9,000 bushels, an average of 600 bushels to the acre. He used the Idaho rural variety and got an average price of 60 cents per bushel.

ILL, TRAIN STOPS FOR HIM.

Pulls Up Near Farmer's House to Take Him to Hospital.

Warrenburg, Mo., Nov. 18.—Physicians attending Elmer Fitterling, a farmer, who sustained a fracture of his hip, decided that an operation was necessary to save his life. Fitterling had to be taken to a hospital in Kansas City.

He was suffering so much pain it was believed that he could not endure a trip to the railroad station, several miles away.

As the railroad ran only a few hundred feet from his home, the authorities were consulted and a passenger train was stopped in front of his home, while neighbors carried him to the train and placed him on a sleeping car.

The Ottoman government intends awarding to private enterprise the contract for the construction in Turkey of villages for Macedonian refugees. Each village will include a mosque and a school in addition to a certain number of houses. For the present it is expected that 40,000 houses will be built.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

BORN IN COLUMBIA CITY.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thorp, Aged 76, Closes Life Spent There.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Elizabeth Thorp passed away at the home of Mrs. William H. Magley, on North Chauncey street, after an illness of several years' duration, during which time she was bedfast for the past year. She was 76 years, 8 months and 5 days of age.

Elizabeth Swihart was the daughter of Henry and Dorothy Swihart and she was born in Columbia City March 24th, 1837. In 1855 she was united in marriage to Jabez Thorp and five children were born to them, two of whom survive. They are Fred and Jacob, of San Diego, Cal. There are no brothers or sisters and Elizabeth Thorp was the last of her family. Mr. Thorp died a number of years ago and since that time the widow lived with Mrs. Thiel, over the river, until the death of the latter, when she took up her residence with Mrs. W. H. Magley, who is a niece of the deceased, and she has lived with her for the past five years.

To the older people of this city Mrs. Thorp is recalled as a person of exceptional personality and she numbered her friends by her acquaintances. She was a woman of Christian ideals and wonderful kindness of heart. She was a devout member of the Grace Lutheran church and her life's influence was exerted for the betterment of those about her.

The funeral will occur at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Will H. Magley, on North Chauncey street, Rev. A. D. Gilbert conducting it, and interment will be made in the Masonic cemetery.

FRIENDS GO TO WAR.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 21.—Although Friends as a body are much opposed to war, two of the brethren of the Monroe congregation tried conclusions in a skirmish, which is declared by bystanders to have been both fast and furious until friends separated the combatants and restored the peace. The contestants in the ring were former Justice of the Peace A. S. Keller, now residing in Adams county, a few miles from the town, and James Hendricks, one of the well known residents of the place. An affidavit was filed against Keller in Squire Stone's court at Decatur, charging him with assault and battery, to which he entered a plea of guilty and was assessed a fine of $1 and costs, amounting in all to $9.80, which he paid and was released. An affidavit has been filed against Hendricks.

DEKALB TEACHERS TO MEET.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 21.—The DeKalb Teachers' association will hold their annual meeting at Waterloo on November 28 and 29, in the U. B. church in that town. This is an event looked forward to by the teachers each year as one of the most profitable as well as pleasant times of the year. Great care has been taken in arranging the program. The object has been to make it entertaining, interesting and profitable. There will be two addresses each session, musical numbers and readings, the banquet and social program following. Each teacher paying the association fee will be given a ticket to the banquet. All persons other than teachers will be considered as guests, for which a charge of fifty cents per plate will be made.

LOSES TWO FINGERS.

Hicksville, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Alfred Wonderly had the misfortune to lose the index and second fingers of his left hand inthe planing mill at the Goller factory. Drs. Cook and Jackson dressed the wound. Mr. Wonderly is a married man with a family. He was the recent candidate for marshal on the democratic ticket.

A Smooth, White Skin That Defies Weather

(From The Woman Beautiful.)

During the coming months of biting winds and intense cold, you who would keep your skins smooth, white and velvety, should turn your attention to mercolized wax. Nothing else will so effectively remove a chapped, roughened or discolored surface. By gradually absorbing the weather-beaten cuticle, the complexion is kept in perfect condition, and even the beauty of expression appears more pronounced. If your skin be blotchy, pimply, freckled, coarse, sallow or overred, why not shed it? One ounce of ordinary mercolized wax, to be had at any druggist's, will completely transform the most unsightly complexion in less than a fortnight. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.

If weather, age or poor health has marred your face with wrinkles, here's good news. You can quickly remove every line by using a harmless, refreshing face lotion prepared by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ¼ pt. witch hazel. The firmer, smoother skin, the more youthful appearance, even after one application, will astonish you.

GREAT LEGAL BATTLE BEGINS.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 21.—Yesterday was set as the time for docketing the petition for the widening, deepening and straightening the Wabash river from the Indiana and Ohio state line to a point west of Linn Grove, in French township. The opponents to the proposed work were on hand early with a protest and Attorneys M. M. Dunbar and Milton Miller, acting for Albert Kendle, one of the affected parties, filed in the circuit court their reasons why their objections should be sustained. The remonstrance filed is based on the grounds that a sufficient legal notice has not been given. It alleges that notice has not been given of the pending of the petition by service upon resident land owners and of posting and publication of notice not less than twenty days before the day for docketing, as is provided by law. Late this afternoon the petitioners had not appeared to ask that the petition be docketed.

The filing of the objection to docketing is only the beginning of what promises to be one of the greatest legal battles ever waged in the county over a drainage proposition. The extent of the work proposed and the great number of parties who will be affected by it makes it by far the greatest undertaking of the kind Adams county has ever had.

MORE MEN LAID OFF IN GARRETT.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 21.—Forty more men were laid off at the B. & O. shops at Garrett today. This makes about two hundred that have been laid off and it is reported that there are but twenty-five men left in the shops. No reason has been assigned for the lay off and the business men are much alarmed. Groups of unemployed may be seen standing on the streets at all times of the day. Many of them have families and are feeling pretty blue over the situation, for there seems to be no immediate prospect of employment. It is thought, however, that work will be resumed by the first of the year. Some of the men have gone elsewhere to look for work until that time.

BIG FARM BARN BURNED.

Decatur, Ind., Nov. 21.—V. C. Laisure, a prosperous farmer residing two and one-half miles southwest of the town of Monroe, met with a hard misfortune when his big barn caught fire and burned to the ground. With the barn, a large amount of contents was also destroyed. The barn was well filled with grain, hay and farm implements, all of which were destroyed with the building. Neighbors rushed to the Laisure home when the fire was discovered and by hard work were able to save the live stock quartered in the building. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is about $4,000 with $2,500 insurance.

UNION SERVICES IN AUBURN.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 21.—The union Thanksgiving services this year will be held in the Christian church of Auburn beginning at 10 o'clock on the morning of November 27. Rev. C. W. Mahin, pastor of the Christian church, will deliver the annual Thanksgiving sermon and music will be furnished by the choir of that church. Each pastor of this city will extend an invitation to his flock to unite with members of other denominations on that day.

BLUFFTON WOMAN DIES.

Bluffton, Ind., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Rachel Hastings, 71, passed away at her home one mile west of Bluffton. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis sustained Wednesday about 11 o'clock, while she was sitting in her chair. She never regained consciousness, and the end came peacefully at 12:45 this morning. She had suffered two previous strokes of paralysis. She was born in Vinton county, Ohio, April 24, 1842.

NEW GAME FOR GRADUATES.

Portland, Ind., Nov. 21.—The list of subjects from which the graduating class of the local high school will select their theses this year have been handed out by the faculty. The themes will be of unusual interest as they will all be relative to Jay county, including history, pioneer residents, reminisceences, Portland, various church denominations, soil, civil war veterans.

Later the students will print the theses in book form in the school printing office conducted in connection with the vocational training.

COLUMBIA CITY MAN DIES.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 21.—John E. Faught, sr., a well known resident of this city, is dead at his home on South Line street, near the Vandalia railroad crossing, and his suffering was relieved after being confined to his bed for the last thirteen weeks. He had been in ill health from tuberculosis for the past eight years. The deceased was born at Hicksville, Ohio, May 6th, 1856. He resided at that city during his youth, also at Bowling Green and Fremont, Ohio, and was a carpenter contractor there for a number of years.

SCARLET FEVER SLAYS LAD.

Huntington, Ind., Nov. 21.—Ill but twenty-four hours with scarlet fever, the three-year-old son of Alfred Baumgartner, southwest of Markle, is dead and there is a scare in the neighborhood. The home is under strict quarantine and the members of the family closely confined. The diagnosis did not show scarlet fever and many persons in the neighborhood were exposed. School No. 9 in Jackson township has been closed by order of the authorities, owing to the prevalence of scarlet fever in the neighborhood.

MARRIED HALF A CENTURY.

Albion, Nov. 21.—Miss Olive Favinger gave a five course dinner for her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Favinger, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The home was beautifully decorated with smilax and carnations and a wedding bell was suspended above the dining room table with ropes of smilax descending to the corners. Mrs. Clara Cook assisted in decorating and serving the dinner.

VAN WERT WATER IS BAD.

Van Wert O., Nov. 21.—As a result of a mysterious intestinal trouble with which several hundred local residents have been afflicted the past few days, Dr. C. G. Church, city health officer, has issued the following notice:

"Owing to the existence of a large number of cases of intestinal trouble, patrons of the city waterworks are urged to boil all water used for drinking purposes for a period of two weeks, pending an analysis to determine the purity of the supply."

TEN MILES OF IMPROVED ROADS.

Elkhart County Will Draw But Little of Automobile Tax Fund.

Goshen, Ind., Nov. 21.—Under the opinion rendered by Attorney General Honan, this county will receive but a small portion of the automobile tax to be distributed among the counties in proportion to the number of miles of "free gravel and macadam roads" as provided by an act of the last legislature. County Auditor John W. Brown, who is the final judge in this county, says there are but ten miles of such roads here. Lake and some other counties will fare well under this clause, as they have made than a hundred miles of such highway.

Elkhart county, however, will fare very well under the provision for the distribution of one-third of the tax collected, according to the number of automobiles owned. It is thought that Elkhart county will stand about tenth.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Nov. 21—A small rally on covering by shorts after a weak opening was the feature of the wheat market this forenoon. First prices were unchanged to ¼c lower, but buying of December, which was active yesterday, was resumed on a scale that caused a reaction in that option to a little above yesterday's close.

Offerings and demand were both light in the corn pit at first but an improved inquiry lifted values later a small amount above the opening, which was a shade lower to a shade higher.

The close was weak at a net loss of ⅜@½c.

Oats under light trade opened unchanged to a shade off and steadied at that range.

The close was easy, ⅝@¾c lower.

Buying of January pork, which lifted its price to yesterday's close after opening 7½c lower, was the feature of an otherwise dull market in which the whole list at the start was a shade to 7½c off.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 21.—Weakness of New Haven, which declined 18⅛, was the conspicuous feature of today's opening. Fluctuations otherwise were small, except for a drop of a point in International Harvester. There was some further pressure on Amalgamated, which receded 5a. Among the active stocks as a whole, however, the movement was almost imperceptible.

Although speculation languished again today, the market showed improvement by comparison with the preceding session. The tendency was downward for a time, but the course of prices was reversed later. Foreign influences dominated the early dealings, in which the market yielded to the depression of stocks aboard and the fall in metal quotations.

The scarcity of stocks for covering facilitated the upturn and the leaders all moved upward fractionally, with the coppers making full recovery. Bonds were easy.

The market closed easy. The small advances established among railroad shares were eliminated by the slow downward movement. The three point fall in New Haven and news that reduction of working forces, such as has been in progress among steel companies, was spreading to various other industries influenced some selling.

DEAD LETTER OFFICE SECRETS

Uncle Sam Is Prepared to Let Everybody Know Just How His Good Work Is Done.

Uncle Sam is now ready to let in the public on one of his dead letter office secrets—for a dollar you can be as wise as some of his canniest clerks in finding streets and avenues ascribed by careless writers to the wrong cities and towns. The "Street Directory of the Principal Cities of the United States," latest edition, is now on sale by the superintendent of documents, government printing office in Washington. It is a sturdy book, bound in green cloth, issued and revised by the dead letter office of the post office department. It is the publication used by postal experts in forwarding misdirected letters and mail matter with address ommissions.

The book shows streets, avenues, courts, lanes, places, roads, wharves, piers and other similar locations in more than 1,200 cities and towns in the established postal service of the United States.

An interesting introduction showing the method of "address sleuthing" used in the postal department, precedes the street list. Everything is arranged alphabetically and the system, deemed so complicated by the general public, is clear and easily usable by concerns and private individuals who have large mailing lists. One of the commonest errors is easily solvable by its pages—the habit of writing "City," as the final word in an address.

If everybody wrote out the name of the town instead of just "City," when addressing letters, there would be fewer jobs in the dead letter office.

Deserved to Rise High.

Joseph Skipsey, a miner and poet of Northumberland, learned to read by committing to memory the appearance of the big letters on the placards stuck up on the hoardings by the pit mouth. As a trapper boy in the pit he wrote and ciphered on the "trap door" in the intervals when no wagon was passing through, and then taught himself grammar; and without any education of any kind, by slow degrees and some keen native instinct, he found out and became acquainted with masterpieces of literature. Then he commenced to write and compose lyrics, and the day came when the pitman-poet numbered among his friends Tenyson, Rossetti, Burne-Jones, William Morris and Lord Morley.

OFFICIAL FORECASTS.

For Fort Wayne and vicinity: Rain late tonight or Saturday; colder Saturday.

For Indiana: Unsettled tonight and Saturday; probably occasional rain; colder.

For Ohio: Unsettled tonight and Saturday; probably occasional rains; warmer tonight south portion; colder Saturday north and west portions.

For Lower Michigan: Rain tonight; colder west portion; Saturday rain south east; rain or snow north and west portions; colder.

SUMMARY OF WEATHER CONDITIONS

An extensive low pressure area which was central in the extreme northwest yesterday has spread slowly southeastward and developed into a well defined storm which is central over the upper Mississippi valley this morning. It is giving rains and some thunderstorms from Minnesota and Wisconsin southwestward to Missouri and Kansas. High temperatures continue throughout the central states, and practically no freezing weather is reported between the Rockies and the Atlantic. Over most of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri the lowest temperatures this morning were from 55 to 60 degrees. Some temperatures from 6 to 10 degrees above zero are reported from th British northwest.

The northwestern storm will continue to spread eastward, and rain is probable for this section late tonight or Saturday. It will be somewhat colder by Saturday afternoon or Saturday night.

Powerful Digestive.

An ideal fruit for the dyspeptic would seem to be the papaya, which grows in southern India and Ceylon. The digestive and disintegrating properties of the juice of this fruit are seen in the fact that the native cooks in Ceylon wrap tough meat in fresh papaya leaves to make it tender, or apply a small quantity of the milky fluid to the surface of the meat, or put a small portion of the plant itself into the pot when the meat will not boil soft. Papain, a chemical extract is said to be capable of digesting ten to twelve times its weight of egg albumen at the temperature of the human body.

The world is consuming more than one million gallons of kerosene every day.

VETERAN WARRIOR FALLS IN BATTLE

Mat Thomas, Bourbon, Comes Here to Charge John Barleycorn.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

Matthew Thomas, a veteran of the war between the states, came from a town called Bourbon to get an invoice of liquor widely known and generally denominated by the same name. He came in Tuesday and applied himself with great freshness and diligence to the voluntary task of creating a booze famine hereabouts. He was so far gone when picked up at the Wabash station that he had forgotten his name and could only remember and assert that he fought in the Thirty-fourth Indiana. He had plenty of money to take care of himself and Judge Mungovan let him go.

Detained by Sickness.

James Coyles, one of the Decatur sugar mill operatives, who was released from police court yesterday, was on hand with some consecutiveness today. He sadly explained that he was just making a Decatur car at the interurban station when he felt an attack of sickness striking him and with great presence of mind rushed to a nearby saloon and did all that a man and a dime could do to ward off the fateful stroke. He succeeded in saving his life, but the heroic remedy employed got him down and out. He was allowed to try once more to get back to Decatur.

Came Down From Angola.

Fred Willing unblushingly confessed to Angola—Angola the dry—anti-saloon, teetotalling Angola. He was found last night pickled as a walnut and trying to navigate Main street with a cargo that would have been plenty split between two. Officer Fry saved him from a night under the stars and Judge Mungovan gave him leave to hit the pike for the Steuben county capital.

Given Time to Leave Town.

Francis Marion, who is dragging a good name overmuch into police records and annals, was in for train climbing. He blew in on a Nickel Plate passenger train and was nabbed by Special Officer Young. Marion was arrested a few weeks ago while sticking too close to the $400 roll of an Ohio stock buyer, whom he was piloting around saloons early in the morning. Nothing was found directly against him then and he was released. He said today he was trying to get the big crop in the corn belt put away. He was turned loose.

Other Police Court Cases.

George McVicker, drunk, pleaded that he took a drink before breakfast and was floored by it. He went down and out at the corner of Wayne and Calhoun streets yesterday and Officer Petgen got him. He was released.

Paul Young, aged 9 years, was certified to the juvenile court. He is held in connection with some bicycle thefts committed by older boys with whom he has trained.

Lee Stockey, wanted at Lima, Ohio, for neglecting his children, was held under bond as a fugitive until officers from that city can come for him.

A conference has taken place in Vera Cruz for the purpose of calling together a committee for a Mexican trade union congress.

TO OPPOSE ASSESSMENT

Lakesiders Will Object to Plan for New Boulevard.

At a meeting of the Northeast Civic Improvement association to be held within the near future, the members will take action against the proposed assessment for the building of a boulevard from Walton avenue to the old Driving park through Forest park. They say that all of the Lakeside residents would be assessed for the improvement, and that many of those assessed would not be benefited by the boulevard.

A meeting of the association was to have been held Wednesday evening at the home of Jacob Agne, but was indefinitely postponed.

Fair Algeriennes.

In Algiers, and indeed in all Mohammedan cities, says the National Magazine, the "High Society" ladies of the harem never go outside the harem walls, save veiled in closed carriages, and attended by trusty servants. It is the middle class and the serving people one meets on the streets, and in the shops and cemeteries.

The Mohammedan men are intensely jealous and suspicious of women. Keeping them in utter ignorance, as they do, they know that the women have no guiding principles to save them from being foolish and indiscreet; and the men know, too, that their women are governed by their appetites, vanities and passions, and so keep them as wholly as possible from temptation. Yet these temptations reach them now and then, and the women who are allowed to go out alone, or even in twos or threes, however heavily veiled, sometimes find opportunities for intrigue.

Sending pictures by wire is nothing new in Germany and France, and now they are talking of cabling them across the Atlantic.
